

North's Glasser misses no-hitter

Darin Glasser struck out 13 batters for North Farmington, but it was the one he didn't get Friday that hurt.

The junior pitcher tossed a one-hitter as the Raiders defeated host Walled Lake Central 3-1 in Western Lakes Activities Association baseball play.

"I had a no-hitter with two outs in the seventh inning," said Glasser, who walked two and allowed an unearned run in the seventh. "I blew it, but at least we got the win."

Glasser had struck out Central's Steve Crepeau in two previous at-bats, but Crepeau doubled the third time to ruin the no-hit bid.

North's Robert Roth singled, stole second, took third on a wild pitch and scored on Eric Pierce's sacrifice fly in the first, which also featured an RBI single by John Leeway.

Leeway doubled in the sixth and later scored from third on a suicide sacrifice by Mike Field.

Jake Mathison went seven innings for Walled Lake Central, striking out six and walking two.

Glasser has now won both North's games this season. The Raiders whipped Ferndale 18-9 Thursday.

Both led off with a home run, and it was all downhill from there. The game counted for both teams, although it was classified as a scrimmage with free substitution allowed.

Glasser got the win for one inning of work.

HARRISON 6, NORTHVILLE 3: Jake Lawson excelled at the plate and on the mound Friday, lifting the Hawks to a season-opening victory over visiting Northville.

Lawson ripped a two-run double in the first inning to give the Hawks a 2-0 lead, and he spaced a four-run double with a two-run triple.

Dave Hessel collected three hits and scored twice for Harrison.

U-M needs 10 innings

to turn back Madonna

If first impressions are long-lasting, University of Michigan's baseball team may never want a rematch with Madonna University.

Thursday in Ann Arbor, Madonna and U-M met for the first time ever. The results: a 6-4 win for the Wolverines in 10 innings.

The game-winner scored after two were out. Brian Simmons singled off Madonna reliever Jim Solak, and Mike Muir followed with a walk. Scott Niemiec (from Plymouth Salem) was hit by a pitch, leading the bases for Sean Coston. Coston popped a ball up into short center field, and two Madonna fielders watched it drop in as the game-winning run scored.

Although the Fighting Crusaders made the NCAA Division I Wolverines earn the victory, it wasn't quite good enough for coach Mike George. "I hate to lose anytime," George said. "I hate to lose by giving them four unearned runs. That's disappointing."

U-M threw four freshmen hurlers at Madonna, with Mike Hribek starting and going the first three innings. He was followed by Chris Hess (three innings), Derek Besco (Westland John Glenn, 14 innings) and John Arvai (2½ innings). Arvai got the win.

Craig Benedict (Plymouth Canton) started and tossed three scoreless innings for Madonna. Dan Podyn went the next two, giving up one run, with Sean Henkel following, allowing two unearned runs. Solak also gave two unearned runs in 2½ innings.

Hawks have soaring start; Marlins debut with sweep

Farmington Hills Harrison began its quest to repeat as Western Lakes Activities Association softball champion Friday by trouncing host Northville 6-0.

It was Harrison's second straight shutout and errorless game.

The Hawks, 2-0 overall and 1-0 in the WLAA Western Division, collected 12 hits to back the one-hit pitching of Erin LaCasse, who struck out 11 and walked one.

Harrison broke the game open by scoring three times each in the fifth and sixth innings. The Mustangs helped by committing six errors.

Lori Hubbell led the Harrison attack for 3-for-4, with three runs scored and three stolen bases.

Stephanie Schwalm was 2-for-5, stole two bases and scored two runs. Jodie Berringer, who also had two stolen bases and scored once, and Kristin Korsari were 2-for-3. The Hawks stole a total of 11 bases.

The 11-member Hawks were under duress, according to coach Mike Teachman, with LaCasse and Jenny Mylinski playing with pulled leg muscles.

Despite the injuries, Mylinski still reached base three times and scored twice. She also had a double and knocked in a run.

"We weren't a hundred percent, but everyone gutted it out and played great defense," Teachman said. "Kathy Schneider has caught two excellent games in a row."

On Thursday, Harrison shut out visiting Redford Union 10-0 in the opener for both teams.

LaCasse retired 14 batters on strikes while walking four, and three of the other four outs were groundouts. RU had two hits and walking two.

The Hawks collected 13 hits. Mylinski was 3-for-4 with two RBIs, while Schwalm went 2-for-4 with two runs scored and three steals.

Hubbell and Berringer added two hits apiece. Berringer also scored twice, had two steals and nine steals total.

"We were trying to make some things happen; that's our style," Teachman said.

MERCY 3-0, LADYWOOD 2-7: The Marlins gave coach Jack Falvo his first two wins as Mercy coach Friday by sweeping a Catholic League doubleheader at Livonia Ladywood.

In the opener, senior Heather Jones threw a complete game three-hitter. She struck out seven and walked three. Lindsay Moller supplied the big hit of the game — a two-run homer in the fifth — that gave the Marlins a 3-0 lead.

Geiger also scored on the run.

The Blazers narrowed the margin in the seventh after a two-run homer by Cassie Enteninger, but fell one run short.
