Cub Scouts pack 'em in for races

Larkshire Elementary's Cub Scout Pack 231 recently held its 26th annual Pinewood Derby race.

The Scouts raced their home-built kit cars down a four-lane track.

This year it was easy for the crowd to keep score, thanks to the addition of a large display that shows lane finishing positions.

The elimination winners are: Tiger Cubs — first place Jeffrey Musick, second place Austin Selden, third place Andrew Lesonjak, Wolf — first place Timothy Pearson, second place Mike Dennis, third place Bobby Theisen; Bear — first place Daniel Clay, second place James Daly, third place Adam Keesling; Webelos — first place Steve Pinkliner, second place Nick Wilk, third place Bryan Theisen; overall winner — Daniel Clay.

All the boys voted for their favorite cars. The votes were tallied as the Scouts Choice Awards. The winners are: first place Andrew Nowak, second place Jason Paradowski, third place Danny Kleinow.

Residential Properties

On Being A Real Estate Professional: I am very fortunate to be living and working in an area with so many beautiful homes.

The quality, integrity and uniqueness of the properties I sell make them a pleasure to represent. Studying architecture and design has helped me identify, assess and present a property's true worth. There is a tremendous amount of personal and professional satisfaction in knowing my clients will benefit from my service.

Her alzheimer's can be tragic... for you.

If you're caring for an Alzheimer's victim, day in and day out, you know it can often be physically and emotionally draining.

Important Consideration.

Don't let yourself get so exhausted you can't function effectively. Let us take the pressure off. Our specialized Alzheimer's Program, called The Helping Hands Program, does not require permanent placement. There is a minimum stay of 15 days, a maximum of 30, allowing family members to take a much needed break. Under special circumstances we can extend our program, depending on the needs of your family.

Specialized Services, Unique Accommodations.

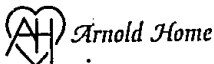

Our specialized services are comprehensive. A thorough medical and nursing assessment on admission. A complete nutritional management system in place. Diligent attention to personal hygiene and grooming. Carefully designed activities and recreational programs in a restraint free environment. Choose between one bedroom apartments for a more home-like atmosphere or deluxe private rooms with private bath. In addition, our Alzheimer's unit has its own private dining room and lounge area. If seeing is believing, just one look will leave you very impressed.

Call Today.

If you need a break from caring for someone with Alzheimer's, call the Arnold Home at 313-531-4001. Ask about our special "Helping Hands Program." We'll take good care of your loved one, while you take care of yourself. After all, everyone needs a helping hand now and then.

For further information, or additional details, call or write: Mary Cobello, Director of Admissions.
