"This was how we figured the meet would be," Canton coach George Przyodski said. "Harrison has some good athletes and they ran a very good meet.
"We thought we had to win three of the four relays to win the meet — and we did."

Farmington senior Andrea Sa-lyer set a school record in the high jump Tuesday when she jump 5-6. The old mark, which Salyer shared with Sambia Shivers, was 5-4. Shivers set the standard in the mid '80s, and Salyer matched it three years ago.

"(Salyer) tied the record as a freahman, and we were just wait-ing for it to happen," Famington coach Bruce Brown said. "She just couldn't seem to break the 5-4 barries.

coach Brites Brown said. the 5-4 barrier.

"She had good competition, too, because (Livonia Bievensen's Colleen) Leaondak went 5-4, too."

The host Falcons won just two other events, however, and lost the meet 87-41.

Farmington junior Kim Washnock won the shot but (32-4) and the discus (102-3).

Stevenson is 1-0 in the Lakes Division and 2-1 overall, the Falcons 0-1 and 0-2.

"Actually. I thought we did well," Brown said. "Stevenson is better than we are, but we had some nice times; we did some spod things." good things." History favors Mercy
