Shamrocks in transition stage

By Steve Kowalski Stapp Writer

When Scott Tynan and Bill Zimmer were lacrosse players at Detroit Country Day, they would encourage Redford Catholic Central players to play a rough game. A decade later, the two are discouraging the Shamrocks from that style.

that style.

Tynan and Zimmer were line-mates on Detroit Country Day's 1935 state championahip team.

"This is a team in transition," Zimmer said, "CC has traditionally been a real athletic, hard hitting team. We don't want to discourage them from hard hits, but we want to keep them out of the penalty box.

LACROSSE

"When we were at Country Day, we knew they would hit hard and not quit, but we wanted to make the penalty box a revolving door for them. We're trying to enhance their increase sense and feel for the sum."

The Shamrocks are adjusting slowly to the new style, losing three of their first five games, including Wednesday's 9-6 loss at Bloomfield Hills Cranbrock.

But perhaps an even bigger adjustment has had to be made in net where the Shamecks lost allitater Aler Alviar to graduation. Junior Bryan Jeffires has gotten the call between the pipes and it hasn't helped that two starting senior defensemen, Matt Marchal and Mike Liebau, are lost for the season with shoulder injuries.

Senior Dan McCarthy, who was a goalis until a couple weeks ago, has been moved to defense. The other defensemen are juniors Mike Smiley and Nick Lacha-

Zimmer said the key to the sem is the attack zone. Senior Jason Hubenschmidt has been moved from midfield to attack, where he has four goals and five assists. He's added by junior Mark Wollschinger and senior Elliott Washburn.

"We'll go as our attack goes," Zimmer sald. "We're real solid.

The midfield is intact, led by senior Gary Galvin, who is the Shamrocks' top two-way player, according to Zimmer. Galvin is the Shamrocks' leading accore with seven goals and three asists.

"He comes out for every shift like it's his last," Zimmer said.
The other starting midfielders are juniors Steve Mondry and Tom Smiley, who has contributed five goals and two assists Junior "This is Scot's team and I try

Walter's decides to leave LCBL

By Steve Kowalski

Saying he's "concerned with the direction the league is head-ing." Walter's Appliance coach Harvey Weingarden has decided to pull his team out of the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League.

Walter's has been a member of the LCBL since the early '80s and a consistent title contender.

the LCBL since the early '80s and a consistent title contender.

Weingarden informed LCBL intentions last Monday, 10 days after the leggue accepted Dearborn Adray as a sixth member on the entry deadline. University of Detroit-Mercy assistant coach Bob Atkins is Incharge of Adray Appliance's sponsorships of 600 baseball and soft-ball teams in metro Detroit. Even though Dearborn Adray will be coached by Craig Oversitis (a Livonia Franklin graduate and former Walter's player). Weingarten is concerned the team is too closely seffiliated with U-D Mercy. The LCBL earlier this off-season accepted Decision Consults, Inc., a team coached by Madonna University head coach Mike George.

What helped Weingarden make up his mind was when two U-D Mercy players, who originally gave him a verbal commitment to play for Weiter's, decided to play instead with Dearborn Adray.

"They verbally committed, and asked for the contracts to be malied to them three weeks ago. (Sines then) they've made it clear to me (that they're playing for Dearborn Adray)." Weingarden asid "I'm concerned with the direction the league is heading, it's not who it was, but that it's another team affiliated with another college. The more they come into the league, the more it reduces our recruiting bass. It's my opinion that this should not turn into a summer league for college teams.

Walter's Appliance owner John Mistak, who is in charge of the sponsorship, was out of town and unavailable for comment Thursday. Weingarden said he would not discuss the conversation he had with Mistak about the decision to leave the LCBI.
"I prefer to keep all the conversations between Mr. Mistak, me and Suck (Mike Keller, the former coach) private," Weingarden said.
Walter's won three LCBI.

LCBL teams will play a 22-game

"We're back to five and I'm disappointed," Gray said. "Walter's about not retiring this team."

John Moraitis, coach of another long-time member of the LCBL, title Cassars, doean't agree with Walter's decision to leave. He cites times when Walter's Appliance algoed players who played the previous year for Little Cassars.

"I think he's making a mismer.

"If I have my seven and no one else wants my other kids, then they can't play in the summer," George said." I think there are a

With the deadline for rosters 24 hours before the first game May 24, there is aure to be a for of jockeying for players in the next several weeks.
