Scout's gift lifts spirits at Botsford

A 17-year-old Livonia Girl Scout is giving sick children something to smile about. Erin Minor, a senior at Livonia Churchill High School, recently donated more than 200 children's books and gamee to Botsford General Hoepital in Farmington Hill.

General Hospital in Farmington Hills.
Botaford volunteers will distribute the gifts to young patients and visitors in the hospital and Emergency Department. In May, Minor will earn the highest honor in Girl Scouting for her hard work—the Girl Scouts Gold Award.
"I got the idea for the project because I had my tonsils out when I was five, Minor said. "Someone gave me a little bag of books and I just loved it."
Minor got some help from Scholastic Books in Livonia. The Girl Scout asked the company to

Books for Botsford: Girl Scout Erin Minor and Margo Gorchow, Botsford's administrator for hospital and com-munity relations, look over books donated to the hospidonate slightly damaged and sur-plus books, games, crayons, puz-zles and cassette tapes to her project.

Minor added a special touch to the project — sewing 136 cloth gift bags to hold individual bunches of games and books. She presented the donation to Margo Gorchow, administrator, hospital and community prelations at Bots-ford General Hospital. "We appreciate Erin's initia-tive, creativity and hard work," Gorchow said. "These books will make a difference to all the chil-dren who come to Botsford."

Botsford director named to state board

Paul LaCasse, DO, medical di-rector of Botaford General Hospi-tal in Farmington Hills, was sp-pointed as a member of the Mich-igan Health & Hospital Association Corporate Board at the association's March 29 board Association Corporate Board at the association's March 29 board meeting.

LaCase, a West Bloomfield resident, will take office effective with the May 10 MHA corporate board meeting and will serve as an at-large member of the board for two years.

LaCase has been involved in Michigan medical care since beginning as an emergency department physician at Botaford General Hospital in 1979.

He received his doctor of cateopathy degree from the Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine, and recently received his master's of public health in bealth services management and policy from the University of Michigan School of Public Hearing to discuss Michigan's school code

The Michigan Senate Education Committee will take testimony to determine the future of the Michigan School Code 4-6 pm. Monday, May 1, at the Farmington Treining Center, Room 1, 30000 Thomas St.

The bearing is in response to suggestions the school code should be eliminated. The hearing is open to the public. The Farmington Training Center is north of Grand River and east of Farmington Road in downtown Farmington.

OBITUARIES

GETGGEY P. HARREN

Mr. Harren, 35, of Farmington, formerly of Livonia, died April 13 in Botsford Hospital, Farmington Hills.

in Botsford Hospital, Farmington Hills.

Born in Wichita, Kansas, Mr. Harmen worked in the construction industry. He was a graduate of Livenia Churchill High School.

Survivors incitede his brothers, Jerry, Dan and Jeff, aisters, Jenica Weidmass and Sunas Jostin.

Borvicos were at the Theyer. Rock Puneral Home, Farmington, with the Rev. Leonard Partensky Officiating, Burial was in Holy Sepulchare Cemetery, Southfield. Memorials may be made to Wayno State University Ersin Tumor Research Fund, 4201 St. Autoine, Detroit 45201; att: G.R. Barger, M.D., Dept. of Neurology, 6 E UHC.

Earth Week Festival planned

Trash will turn to "treasure" and quail will be released to highlight the third-annual Earth Week Festival Saturday-Sunday, April 23-30, at Heritage Park in Farmington Hills.

"The local folks are getting used to it, so were looking for a good crowd this year," said Joe Derek, naturalist for the city of Farmington Hills.

Last year, about 1,000 people participated, and that included "a lot of adulas." Derek said.

In the "Trash to Treasure" context, participants and groups are asked to use their creativity to make a piece of art or some other useful object from trash.

There will be three age groups
— Youth (12 years and under),
Teen (ages 31-10) and Adult (20 and over). Entry forms may be picked up at the Farmington Hills
Special Services office behind
Lisk croads.
Entries may be submitted 3-7 p.m. by Friday, April 28, at the Day Camp Center of Heritage
Park on Farmington Road between 10 Mile and 11 Mile roads.
Entries will be displayed during the festival, April 29-30, at Heritage Park. Awards will be made at 3 p.m. Saturday, April 29.

Saturday Saturday, April 29-A rem Farmington Special Olymtics and Farmington Special Olymtics and Farmington Hills' Department of Special Services.

REGISTER TO PLAY INLINE HOCKEY BONAVENTURE

SOLID MAPLE FLOOR!

$130 FOR 11 WEEKS

AGES 5 YEARS TO 16 YEARS

INCLUDES ONE GAME AND ONE PRACTICE PER WEEK EVALUATION WILL BE ON MAY 13 GAMES START THE WEEK OF MAY 29

BONAVENTURE SKATING CENTER

24505 HALSTED FARMINGTON HILLS, MI 48335 PHONE 810-476-2201

Find out what you can expect at our Great Expectations seminar May 6.

Introducing Great Expectations, a seminar for couples who are either thinking of having a baby or are expecting. The seminar prepares you with information on getting pregnant, life style changes which come with parenthood, how to choose a doctor and handling stress. Guest speakers include physicians, a maternal child health nurse and a financial planner.

Botsford's completely new Special Delivery Center has its own private entrance, waiting room/lobby and direct admission. Our specialized labor/delivery/recovery rooms allow you to stay comfortably in one room during childbirth with easy access to the latest technology.

Registration is required and limited. Call (810) 442-7986 for reservations today!

Special Delivery Center

28050 Grand River Avenue

We baby you and your baby, every step of the way. Farmington Hills, MI 48336-5922

