Music Showcase

in need of bands The Ticketmaster Music Show-case and Musician Magazine are looking for 180 bands to perform in a series of more than 40 con-certs throughout the country from mid-August through November. Last year participating bands abowcased for companies, includ-ing Atlantic, Columbia, Epic, Geffen, Giant, MCA, PolyGram Music Publishing, RCA and Mer-cury.

To receive an entry form, call (800) 800-3232. Tapea and accompanying forms must be received by 6 p.m. (PST) May 31.

The 1993 national winners, East Lansings The Verve Pipe, received 225,000 in eash/pro-out on equipment at the Ticketmaster Music Showcase nationals. Then they headed off to Japan, where they represented the United States and MusicQuest, an international showcase featuring bands from 26-countries.

The Verve Pipe, whose photo appears in the June Issue of "Musician" magnatine, recently inked a deal with RCA and finished a national tour with Interscope Records" The Imposters.

Fellow Ticketmaster Music Showcase veteran Dishwalls of Santa Barbara, Calif., is scheduled to release its debut LP, "Pet Your Frienda," in May on A&M. Miracle Pain from Boston, The Refreshments from Tempe, Ariz., and Loveswing from Denton, Texas, are also courting major-label deals.
