

WHEN YOU BUY PAINT

LOOK INTO THE MATTER, AND DECIDE ON USING "THE BEST."

BOYDELL BROTHERS

PAINT STANDS THE TEST.

We have just received a shipment of Barn Paint. See us.

OUR HOME should be finished in a Permanent, Economical Way—You Want a Finish superior to Kalsomine.

Give you the best finish in "SOFT-TONE" the perfect, Watery, Washable Flat Finish for Ceilings, Walls, Radiators.

For Sale By

W. H. Walters, Farmington, Mich.

Now Is The Time! Why Wait?

to buy a pair of Very Pretty and up-to-date OXFORDS for

"EASTER."

A Beautiful pair of Silk Lisle Hose, "FREE" with each pair of OXFORDS, during the two weeks preceding "EASTER."

REID-MOORE CO.

200-202 Griswold St. Detroit, Mich.

Frank J. Moore, formerly with Economy Shoe House.

Don't Fail to See Them

3 of the very Latest Selected Subjects

Greatest Life Motion PICTURES

A will ride for life in Montana

Most thrilling subject in the world.

at Farmington Town Hall, Saturday and Tuesday

April 8-11.

Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Is Your Money

MAKING MONEY FOR YOU

The more of it you have employed for you the less you need to work yourself. Have you ever thought about it? Deposit your funds with the

First Commercial Bank of Pontiac

And it will earn you Four Per Cent Interest.

OWEN HOUSE

The Leading Hotel

RATES: $1.50 AND $2.00 PER DAY

FINE SINGLE ROOM STEAM HEAT

Livery in connection

EUGENE S. GRACE, PROPRIETOR

Here And There.

Seth Pettibone of Greenfield, was the guest of Mail Pettibone of this place, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Hiles returned home Monday from Detroit, where she has been for the last two weeks caring for a sick friend.

Marl F. Pettibone spent his vacation in Greenfield with his grandparents.

Miss Blanche Botsford of Detroit, visited Farmington friends Sunday.

Fred Follette, wife and son of Detroit, visited Mrs. Follette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Edwards, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Elsie Martin of Detroit, spent Sunday at Louis Gildemeister's.

Miss Emma Gildemeister was given a surprise party last Friday evening by a number of her friends. Miss Gildemeister expects to accompany her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gildemeister, on their trip to Germany.

Mrs. C. M. Currie, nee Leticia Paulger, and little daughter of Bay City, have been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Hatton, this week.

Mrs. John McGee entertained in honor of her friend, Miss Parmar of Hudson, Mich., Saturday afternoon. Mrs. McGee in her usual charming way served a five-course six o'clock dinner.

During the concert of Saturday evening a bell was heard to ring, and immediately the cry of "fire" rang through the audience. A stampede seemed inevitable. Some of the men and boys present arose and rushed for the door, but they were quieted by several voices from the platform informing them that the bell had been rung by the Masons overhead, who were doubtless initiating some one into the mystic wonders of their shrine. The crowd settled down again and the program was rendered without further disturbance.

John Mahoney is advertising Easter Lillies. Leave orders at L. C. Schroeder's.

Mrs. Ella Bennett, wife of C. S. Bennett of Valdosta, Georgia, died Sunday morning in the hospital at that place. She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Dexter Riley and had a number of friends here.

C. D. Potter of the Enterprise office made a business trip to Pontiac and Detroit Tuesday.

An Easter Monday party will be given at Hotel Grace, Farmington, on Monday evening, April 7. Stone's orchestra. Bill, 50c; supper, 35c a plate.

M. E. topics for Sunday, April 9: Morning, "The Proud Rider Unhorsed;" evening, "Creation of Man," being the ninth discourse in the evening series, "When the World Was Young." Everybody welcome.

The regular business meeting of the Farmington Guild will be held next Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McGee. This meeting is of special importance, since it is election of officers. Every member is urged to be present, and all others who would like to join the Guild. Nobody is exempted—everybody welcome. The members will kindly remember that next Monday evening is the time for the paying of the annual fee, which is the insignificant sum of 50c.

Bids Wanted.

Bids will be received by School District No. 5, franc, township of Farmington, for the construction of a new school house 32x42, with full size basement. Plans and specifications are in the hands of J. B. Halstead, Farmington.

All bids must be accompanied by a check for $50 and must be on file with the undersigned by May 1, 1911. J. B. HALSTEAD, 252

The Farmington Cemetery Improvement Association will meet at the home of Fred M. Warner on the evening of April 11. All who are interested, are requested to be present as there is the election of officers and other important business to come before the association.

H. W. Lee has a large stock of all kinds of farm tools and machinery that is attracting the attention of the farmers.

Frank Brinker of Detroit visited Sunday at the home of P. L. Prindle.

Misses Irene and Catherine Catnach and Vera Frost of Detroit, spent Sunday evening with their friend, Miss Grace Watch at the home of P. L. Prindle.

The annual state delinquent tax list is running in the Pontiac Press Gazette. Property owners should secure a copy and make sure that their own description is not included.

Four Presbyterian ministers have recently resigned their pastorates in Detroit. The prospect of doing any good in that field appears to be an up-hill job.

The editor of the Gagetown Times says you can scarcely blame a person for being prejudiced against perk, when he sees a man occupy a whole seat in a car when it is crowded.

Tuesday morning the trees, wires and walks were covered with a thick coat of ice, and more than one pedestrian found it difficult to keep his footing.

Miss Marlene and Miss Caro Ramsey returned to their studies at Mt. Pleasant State Normal school on Monday after spending the spring vacation with their parents in the village.

Allan Prindle has gone to Durand, where he has secured employment.

Lewis Prindle, who for a long time has been janitor of the school house, has resigned.

Mrs. N. H. Power of Detroit, visited relatives here Sunday.

There is a little improvement in Max Goodrich's condition for the better.

Cassie Goodrich, who has been spending a few days at the home of her parents, has returned to Ypsilanti.

Mrs. L. Gildemeister was very pleasantly surprised Wednesday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid. About 30 were in attendance. This party was given as a farewell to her departure on April 20 for Europe.

The Republican state ticket was elected by the usual big majority, and the school amendment was also carried. In the Oakland judicial circuit judge Smith was easily elected, and in Wayne the honors were divided between the two tickets, three Republicans and three Democrats being chosen.

The Detroit, a monthly publication issued by the Detroit Board of Commerce, came to this office this week. The little book is full of optimism and the board is doing some tall hustling.

The regular meeting of Farmington chapter, No. 239, O. E. S., will be held Friday evening, April 14.

Mrs. Henry Pauline is quite sick with the gripe.

The moving picture show that was advertised for Tuesday night did not put in an appearance, but the manager writes that he will be here Saturday night without fail.

The Ladies' Aid will meet for its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Day Dickerson, the president.

Mrs. Frank Drake was buried in Oakwood cemetery Friday last, the body having been brought here from Hubbard's Woods, Ill. She was the mother of Mrs. A. B. Avery of Pontiac and died at the home of another daughter.

O. P. Hazard of Detroit made this office a very pleasant call last Saturday while visiting friends in the village. Mr. Hazard was in business here many years ago and is well known throughout this section of the state.

The Farmington Cemetery Improvement Association will meet at the home of Fred M. Warner on the evening of April 11. All who are interested, are requested to be present as there is the election of officers and other important business to come before the association.

H. W. Lee has a large stock of all kinds of farm tools and machinery that is attracting the attention of the farmers.

Frank Brinker of Detroit visited Sunday at the home of P. L. Prindle.

Misses Irene and Catherine Catnach and Vera Frost of Detroit, spent Sunday evening with their friend, Miss Grace Watch at the home of P. L. Prindle.

A very pleasant evening was spent by all who attended the Farmington Five Hundred club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mans, Jr., last Wednesday evening. The evening was spent playing cards. Mrs. John Lopham won the ladies' prize and Mr. Lapham again carried home the gentleman's prize. After a bountiful lunch was served, they departed for their homes to meet again at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lapham.

Farmington High School Baseball club has joined the Western High League for the spring baseball season. The members of the League are Holly, South Lyon, Milford and Farmington.

The Farmington club are issuing season tickets to all of the games played on the home diamond. These season tickets may be had from any officer or member of the club for the small sum of 40c.

It would be a good thing for every citizen to patronize the High School Base Ball club's games if possible. This is the first season that the high school has actually registered in any high school league, and they ought to be encouraged. It may seem a small matter, but it is a matter of advertisement for the town and every little bit helps. Farmington always has been gratefully loyal to her own during all the past and the same loyal support is looked for this season.

Where the Tigers Play

The Detroit United has again issued its famous base ball calendar showing when and where the Detroit baseball club plays. The home dates are printed in red and the days you cannot root at Bennett park are naturally done in black. As long as the supply lasts they may be had from waiting rooms along the Detroit United lines or they will be mailed from the Detroit office on receipt of a two-cent stamp. Address A. D. B. VanZandt, publicity agent, 12 Woodward avenue, Detroit.

DETROIT TO KALAMAZOO

Through Interurban Service Began April 4th.

As a result of traffic arrangements between the Detroit United lines and the Michigan Union Ry., one of the most important steps in electric railway transportation in Michigan will be taken April 4th, when a through limited service will be placed in operation between Detroit and Kalamazoo.

The possibility of enlarging the sphere of the interurban service for the benefit of the traveling public has been under consideration by these two great interurban systems several months, and while the favorable decision was reached some time ago by Officials of both companies, the details have only just been completed. The lines of the M. U. R. are chiefly operated on the "third rail" system and among the details to be worked out was the equipment of the interurban cars of the Detroit United so that they would operate over the M. U. R. tracks. This has all been accomplished and the schedule has been agreed to by the operating departments of the respective companies.

Under the new arrangements there will be limited service leaving Detroit at 6:10 A. M. and every two hours to 4:10 P. M. for Kalamazoo, and leaving Kalamazoo at 6:45 A. M. and every two hours to 4:10 P. M. for Detroit. All these cars will make the usual limited stops of both lines and include such important centers as Spaulding, Ann Arbor, Jackson and Battle Creek.

No less important is the fact that among the additions to the service will be a through limited car between Detroit and Lansing—the Capital Limited—that will leave Lansing at 6 A. M. for Detroit via Jackson, and will leave Detroit at 6:10 P. M. for Lansing via Jackson.

The running time between Detroit and Kalamazoo will be five hours and 55 minutes, and between Detroit and Lansing, three hours and 55 minutes. This in itself will prove a highly attractive feature for business men, and the fact that the hearts of all cities are traversed will greatly add to the beauty of the journey for pleasure seekers. All these limited runs will be made without change of cars and the schedule is so arranged as to conform with the limited schedules of the other Detroit United Lines. Under the new schedule passengers from Toledo, Saginaw, Flint and Port Huron will travel all the way by electric cars with only a short wait at Detroit.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time." Sold by T. H. McGee.

Makes Home Baking Easy

PREACHING AND PRACTICE

How Mr. Spurgeon, Though a Vegetarian, Was Caught Eating Pheasant and Used Adam's Excuse.

"In Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher's recent book of reminiscences entitled, "Along the Trail of the Friendly Years," Mr. Spurgeon is described as a vegetarian who intimated: "There is, he felt free to proclaim himself a vegetarian, which made Doctor Hatcher feel free to play a little prank upon him. One day, at a dinner in London, there was a pheasant. During the progress of the meal Doctor Hatcher's wags' eyes caught sight of quite a formidable quantity of the pheasant's breast on Spurgeon's plate, and, what was more, he noted that the eminent preacher was vigorous beyond his wont in his attack upon the delicious viand. "I heaved an untimely sigh," writes Doctor Hatcher, "and expressed my doubt fully enough my regret that I had to return to America."

"Spurgeon took the matter quite to heart, and seemed to grave surprise that I spoke so slightly of my country."

"I just tried myself by saying that the Americans were so bighearted, and that I would have such a glorious time taking them out of darkness into the new English light."

"You shock me!" Spurgeon said. "That is the matter with your country."

"The matter" he repeated, "matter enough indeed. Why, they do not know in America—they have never found out that a pheasant is a vegetable!"

"Spurgeon broke into good-natured laughter. "Pheasant may not be said, 'the woman' she gave it to me." "Yes," said the lady, "and you did not fail to observe that the man, he did eat."—South's Companion.

GOAT MORE FOR HIS LEFT LEG

Ambidextrous Men Let the Jury "Pheasant His Was Left-Handed and Was Awarded Big Damages."

"There is a funny thing about the relative value of a man's right and left hand and the lawyer. Not long ago I was called upon to conduct the case of a man who had lost his left leg in a railroad accident. He was laid up in the hospital for several weeks, who blamed the user uselessness of his right hand caused much comment among the doctors and nurses. Other left-handed patients they had met were able at least to fight fire, but my client's right hand wasn't even at it."

"The case came to trial and the jury awarded him damages $500 in excess of what he had asked for, because, said the foreman, he is left-handed."

"The next day I stumbled on my way in a restaurant, and found him sitting up with his right hand."

"That is all right," said he. "It isn't a new accomplishment. I could do it all the time. Can you use one hand as well as the other, always could, but after I lost my left leg I concluded to let my right hand take a vacation. You see, I know the ways of justice. I can't follow their reasoning, but I have studied their verdicts, and I have observed that while the right leg is considered of more value to the average man than his left leg, the left leg fetches a boom price if it belongs to a left-handed man. I can't see the connection, but justice can. You heard what that jury of mine said! Well, they always reason that way."

Egg Flip in London.

"While of the subject of our American friends and the New Year one wonders," says the Gentlewoman, "how many people understand the association of the latter date with egg flip. It has gradually become a recognized form for American hostesses over here to add egg flip to their New Year cards by invitation."

"Being interested" (it signifies the wonderful American devised drink composed of whipped egg in conjunction with the sweet and moist delicious of lingers and other tempting delicacies."

Tenants Were Few.

"Bro—There aren't many people around here." "Amen—So, I don't believe we could make any money, running 'Seeing Eyes' here."