

FREE REMEDY HELPS CHILDREN

Many a mother has learned of a way of avoiding sickness in her family, especially among the children, by the use of a free sample bottle of the famous laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This offer of the doctor's to send a free sample bottle has been responded to by thousands of women in all parts of America.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a truly wonderful laxative and especially adapted to the needs of babies and children because it is pleasant to taste and no child will refuse it. Then it is mild and never gripes. It is all that a child's remedy should be, though it is a good laxative for the whole family because it is effective at all ages. It is not dynamic like salts, pills and powder cathartics, which should not be given to children under any circumstances.

Nine times out of ten when a child complains and you don't know exactly what is the matter with it, it needs a laxative—its bowels are constipated. Syrup Pepsin will correct the trouble, tone up the child and soon it will be well again—wonderful results have been secured with Syrup Pepsin over and over.

You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents or a dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size, but you are invited to make a test of it first at the doctor's expense. Send him your address today and he will send you a free sample bottle direct to your home. Then when you are tired of your favorite druggist.

For the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

Meanness Personified.
Owing to an outbreak of typhus fever the Hospital (County) (Clare) guardians have had to obtain the services of nurses from a leading hospital in Dublin. One of the nurses having contracted the disease and died, an application was made to the guardians for the payment of the funeral expenses. A guardian named McMahon objected. The master of the workhouse pointed out that the nurse had sacrificed her life in their service. "Was it not her duty to sacrifice her life, seeing that she was paid for her services?" remarked the grateful McMahon. Fortunately, the other guardians refused to accept the request sought to be put upon them by their parsimonious countryman—London Daily Mail.

Putting it Correctly.
One night as Detective James Moran was entering an eating-house, he was accosted by a hungry-eyed tramp, who exclaimed:
"For God's sake, mister, put me against the trough. I shan't eat nothing for two days."
He kicked it, so Moran took him in and told a waiter to give him a full dinner.
When Moran had finished his dinner and walked out, he found the tramp on the sidewalk and was the recipient of profuse thanks.
"Well," remarked the detective, "I'm glad you got all that dinner you want."
"I didn't, boss," corrected the hobo, "but I had all I could eat."—Cleveland Leader.

His Witness.
Six-year-old David had been told not to play in the oilled road. Coming into the house with suspiciously black hands, he was reprimanded by his mother.
"You're been playing in the road," she said.
"No, mother, I haven't. That's gitch from the tree."

An Industrious Queen.
"Only when I have my secretary come and feed the new plays and the critics of new books. During that time I make fine needlework, mostly for our churches. I work first in silk and embroider that in gold with precious stones, as queens used to do in the middle ages. I am always at home and I like to see everybody hard at work about me."—New Idea Woman's Magazine.
