The track is over. Livonia Ladywood put an end to Farmington Hills Mercy's dominance of the Catholic League A-B Division girls track meet by winning Tuesday's championship at Mercy.

The Blazers finished with 116 points — just five ahead of five-time defending champion Mercy. It was Ladywood's first Catholic League title in 11 years, and the first for third-year coach Bob O'Brien.

"I thought we'd be the favorite coming in, but I really wasn't comfortable until Stacie (Johnson) won the high jump," O'Brien said. "That's when I got some relief."

Johnson cleared 5 feet, 2 inches in the high jump and gave the Blazers a three-point lead with the 1,600-meter relay remaining.

Shannon Smith got Ladywood off to a quick start in the 1,600 relay and the Blazers led from start to finish. Nicole Clausen, Stephanie Musat and Lindsay Soter followed Smith as the four-some finished with a season-best time of 4:09.2 — more than nine seconds ahead of the runner-up Marlin.

"We beat Mercy in duals so we figured we'd do well today," Soter said. "It feels awesome to be champions. We should have won it last year. It's been too long since our last title."

The Marlin's competed without senior Eileen O'Connell — the area's best middle distance runner. O'Connell was diagnosed last Tuesday with a stress fracture in her hip and was told she would be sidelined at least a month.

"I kind of expected (losing to Ladywood)," Mercy coach Gary Servais said. "But it's a credit to the kids how close it was. Losing Eileen cost us, conservatively, 30 points. Losing her was a big let-down for us, but the girls dug down and many of them ran their best ever."

One Marlin who shined was sophomore Elizabeth Gignac, who won the 1,600 run (5:31.7) and the 3,200 run (12:02.1).

"We knew it would be really tough to win the title without Eileen, but I also think the other teams were more pumped up to beat us because it would have been our sixth title in a row," Gignac said.

Mercy also received a first in the 100 hurdles from Amy Buhl (15.5) and in the 3,200 relay from Gignac, Jacqueline Segue, Lisa Nobles and Amanda Phelps (10:05.2).

"I'm excited about our future,"

Servais said. "For us to score 111 points without Eileen is something. And just about everyone is coming back."

O'Brien admitted the Marlin's performance may have been affected without O'Connell, but that didn't tarnish Ladywood's title.

"It hurt Mercy not to have her but her absence takes nothing away from what we accomplished out here," O'Brien said.

The Blazers scored in every event and picked up important points from Beth Kummer, who was second in the shot put, Jamie VanBuehler, who was tied for third in the high jump, and Stacie Johnson, who scored a total of 23 points.

Birmingham Marian's Atiya Bussey had a strong meet, as she won the 100 dash (12.3), the 400 (59.1) and was second to her teammate Brandi Bentley in the 200.

Shamrocks produce winning effort in league meet

For Tony Magni, winning Tuesday's Catholic League A-B Division track championship at Farmington Hills Mercy meant more than any of his first four at Shamrock's coach.

"This title was much more special," Magni said. "No one gave us a shot to win this at the beginning of the year. We didn't have a lot of kids come out for the team early in the year, but the ones that did gave it a pep talk. What makes this special is the kids wanted it and the kids won it."

BOYS MEET

CC, which came in third last season, finished with 106 points. U-D Jesuit was a close second with 95 points, followed by last year's champion, Birmingham Brother Rice (73).

CC led for the entire first half of the meet, thanks in part to strong field performances by John Spolski, who won the shot put (51 feet, 8 inches) and Joe Washnuck, who took the discus (153.6).

But behind Kareem Dillard, the Cubs mounted a comeback and took the lead. Dillard won four events — the long jump, 100-meter dash, 200 run and 400 run.

"Kareem is a great athlete, but it just wasn't him; he had a great supporting cast," Magni said. "I wasn't too worried about losing the lead because we have a strong 1,600 relay team and good two-milers."

The rain began falling hard as the 3,200 run began. CC did better than a second, as the four-some of Kevin Quay, Brian Pollock, Brian Teeffey and Rudy Kelly-Powell won the race in 3:31.9.

Kelly-Powell anchored the winning relay team, holding off the Brother Rice team despite hamstringing and shin.

came through for us with a second," Magni said. "We knew if we could finish one-two, it would be hard for them."

"I realized that the meet could turn on my run," Leo said. "But I knew we have a great distance program and would finish the meet strong."

The Shamrocks needed at least a second place finish in the 1,600 relay to claim the victory. CC did better than a second, as the four-some of Kevin Quay, Brian Pollock, Brian Teeffey and Rudy Kelly-Powell won the race in 3:31.9.

Kelly-Powell anchored the winning relay team, holding off the Brother Rice team despite hamstringing and shin.
