LOOKING BACK . . .

Did You Know?

Oakland County's Leader Dog Program was founded in 1939. It began when a few members of the Lions Club purchased a farm house to meet the growing need for trained dogs. Today the farm house stands in the center of a complex valued over a million dollars in Rochester.

In 1939, Max Broock, Inc., introduces two subdivisions of estate sized homes; Cranbrook Court and South Bloomfield Glens.
