Consultants wins showdown

Decision Consultants Inc. won a battle of unbeaten Livonia Collegiate Baseball League teams on Wednesday, defeating Hines Park Lincoln-Mercury 10-9 at Livonia's Ford Field.

The game was called after six innings because of the two-hour time limit. The win moves Decision Consultants, a six-over team, to 3-0. Hines Park fell to 3-1.

Hines Park was threatening in the bottom of the sixth, but DCI struck out the final batter with the bases loaded to preserve the win.

Dennis Perry (Henry Ford College), the first of three Hines Park pitchers, suffered the loss. Derek Besco (Westland John Glenn/University of Michigan) pitched 14 innings and Scott Kapla (Redford Catholic Central/Eastern Michigan) pitched 19 innings. DCI scored on two squeeze bunts.

Jeff Lance (Redford Thurston/Henry Ford) had a triple and two RBI for Hines Park. Teammates Dino Rovinello, Besco and E.J. Howell had two hits each.

Rovinello and Howell drove in two runs each. Besco had one RBI.

■ ADRAY 7, LITTLE CAESARS 6: If Livonia Little Caesars coach John Morvillo ever gets a full complement of players, he thinks his team has a chance.

Little Caesars, playing without three key players, outlasted Adray, 7-4. The loss dropped Caesars to 2-3. Adray won for the first time in five games.

Caesars was without shortstop Phil Pienpany for the third time this season. Pienpany lives near Monroe and has transportation problems, according to Morvillo.

Mark Rutherford (Livonia Churchill/EMU) was playing on his team in a Wooden Bat League, and second baseman Mike Fenech (Macomb Community College) was out of town.
