The Observer is very pleased to present the winner of our "Greatest Dad" contest. We asked young readers to tell us why their dads were the greatest and the entries poured in. Our panel of judges had the difficult task of selecting a single winner from all of the outstanding tributes we received from our community.

We'd like to thank all those who participated and proudly announce the author of the winning entry!

My dad's the best dad because of the things he does for me. He lets me know that even if no one likes me, he'll be there for me. He coaches softball, and comes to all my recitals and concerts. He always leaves time in his schedule for his family!
