Master suite in this house plan isolated from day-to-day living

If the privacy of a well-isolated master suite is important to you, consider the Kearney. The master suite and second bedroom couldn't be much farther apart. For the couple with an older child still at home, or empty nesters who need a spare room for guests, this arrangement is beneficial.

Luxuries in the master suite, where a large bay window brings the sunshine inside, include a skylight bathroom with separate toilet and twin basins, a large closet, and private access to a small back patio, where an optional spa can ease away the cares of the day.

Dining room and family room flow together, with a wide hearth to take away the chill. This bright skylight area, with built-in entertainment center, is a great place for family and friends to gather for hours of fun watching television, listening to music or just enjoying each others company. A full bathroom, with dual access, separates the family room and second bedroom.

The large, vaulted living room has a big bay window looking out over the covered porch to the front yard. This room also flows into the dining area, enhancing the open feeling of the house.

For the cook in the house, the spacious walk-in kitchen is sure to please. Conveniently located for easy serving, the kitchen has all the built-ins plus a pantry and room for a washer and dryer. With direct passage to the two-car garage, groceries can be easily brought inside. Extra room is available in the garage for storage or it can be used as a workshop for the do-it-yourself person that likes to tackle tough projects.

For the lazy days of summer, there is a large back deck. Here friends and relatives can fire up the barbecue and savor each other's company along with the sunshine and food.

The Kearney: Overall dimensions of the Kearney are 77 feet 6 inches by 48 feet 9 inches.
