Take Faith On Vacation;
Don't Travel
Without It

For many of us it's vacation time about now, and presumably, our plans have already been made.
They might consist of seeing friends or relatives, exploring a city we've never been to before, visiting a historical site, or going camping in the woods or mountains; all depending on where we live and how far we want to go.

Whatever our destination, our faith should go along with us. In a city or town, we should take time out to attend a House of Worship. In a wilderness area, we should at least read some passages from the Bible that we remembered to pack before we left home, and also remind the children that the trees, mountains, streams, etc., are all part of God's creation.

Let us remember that wherever we are, He is watching over us, and He will see us safely home again.
