

The Oakland County Health Division will offer an immunization clinic for Farmington-area residents at the Clarenceville United Methodist Church, 20300 Middlebelt Road, from 9 a.m. to noon Wednesday, Aug. 9.

Immunizations for measles, German measles, mumps, polio, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and Hemophilus influenzae Type B (HIB) will be available.

A parent or legal guardian must accompany a child under 18 years of age.

Immunizations will be given at the same time and location on the second Wednesday of every month. The next scheduled immunization clinic will be on Sept. 13. For further information, call 424-7048.

Each week, the Recreation Division of the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information regarding programs, call the recreation office at 473-9570.
