New resident wins Hills race

BY MARTY BUDNER
STAFF WRITER

Guy Murray was on the move Sunday.

Murray began the day by winning the Heart of the Hills 10K race in Bloomfield Hills. Later on he packed his belongings and moved from Clawson to Farmington Hills.

Murray had a lot more company in the morning as he was one of nearly 1,000 racers who participated in the 10th annual Heart of the Hills race that started and ended on the Bloomfield Hills Andover High School track.

A head track coach at the University of Detroit-Mercy College, Murray won with a time of 33:01. David Chomet of Southfield was second at 33:10 and Keith Stopen of Farmington Hills placed third in 33:30.

It was second overall victory in four years for Murray, who also took the 1992 championship. The 28-year-old racer earned runner-up honors in 1993 and 1994.

Murray said his experience and course knowledge aided his victory.

"I know where the hill parts are and the flat parts are," said Murray, who plans to run in the Free

Press International Marathon this fall. "I was in the lead group, but I just waited till I hit the flat part (of the course) to make my move."

"I was kind of tired through the first part of the course and I took the lead just before the three-mile mark," he said. "This is a good, challenging course. They do a great job here of putting it on."

The overall women's 10K winner was Romeo's Nancy Collier, who registered a time of 39:02. She was followed by Renee Bluekamp of Birmingham (40:33) and Deb Froehlich of Warren (40:40).

In the 5K race, David Barnett, 21, of Ann Arbor won in 15:52. Brett Stopen, 28, of Royal Oak was second in 16:32 while Chris Constantino of Sterling Heights placed third in 16:49.

The overall women's 5K winner was Birmingham's Nicole Eberle. Royal Oak's Tammy Sanborn was second in 21:52 and Rochester Adams graduate Erica Halliday, who now attends Hillsdale College, was third in 22:17.

Eberle, 19, participated in the 10K run in the 5K race last year. This was her first 5K title.

"I didn't know I was in the lead until after the two mile mark," said Eberle, who ran a 6:53-mile pace. "It was nice to win it. There's good competition here."

"This is a good race. It's nice and hilly and it's good training for cross country in the fall," said Eberle, a 1993 Birmingham Marian graduate who is now on the cross country team at Central Michigan University.

Ed Kozloff of the Motor City Striders said the Heart of the Hills race — voted one of the top races by Michigan Runner magazine — has become one of the most popular events on the summer schedule.

"The runners love the course, which is hilly and challenging," said Kozloff. "Runners like flat courses, but this race is nice because of the diversity of the hills."

"This is unique to many road races because it starts and ends on a track. It makes the start and finish a faster race," he said.
