Real brotherhood: Mike (top) and Mark Lucas of Farmington Hills have been sharing Mark's bicycle ever since Mike's two-wheeler broke down. But Mike says they mostly ride it one at a time.

Senior citizens can zoo it Aug. 30

Area senior citizens will receive free admission and parking at the Detroit Zoo on Wednesday, Aug. 30, courtesy of Perry Drug Stores and Rite Aid Pharmacies.

The event marks the introduction of Rite Aid in metro Detroit following the company's acquisition of Perry earlier this year.

The offer at the zoo, Woodward

Avenue at I-696 in Royal Oak, includes free admission and parking for two people, free tractor train rides and access to Senior Alliance Area Agencies on Aging representatives on zoo grounds.

Perry and Rite Aid staff will be on hand distributing product samples and providing pharmacy advice.

The zoo will be open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

It is the 13th annual Senior Zoo Day, a tradition begun in 1983 in honor of Isabella Fiesselmann.

Rite Aid operates 360 drug stores throughout Michigan and is the country's largest drugstore chain, with 2,800 stores in 23 states.

The educator's education Three new graduate degrees...plus.

We've been educating educators for a long time now, and with a great measure of success. Teachers are always in demand and now, increasingly, the demand is for more teachers with more education. We're doing our part. The resources of U of M are legendary and at your disposal. This is true whether you're getting an advanced degree in your area of Education or moving up in a different career field like Public Administration. And who to teach teachers better than our creative and experienced faculty of, well, superb teachers? Classes are scheduled during the day or in the evening for your convenience. You'll notice we've added three brand-new degrees. For you. From U of M. Now. Yes!

From U of M-Dearborn. Closer than you thought possible.
