drive to the basket."

Gojzer (5-0), who broke a thumb after playing in eight games last year, is the backup point guard and a good defender. Jenny Brennan (5-9) will support Grooms at small forward.

The roster also includes 5-8 sophomore swing player Ashley Schumacher, junior guards and three-point specialists Mary Duggan (5-6) and Gina Tullao (5-7) and junior small forward Katie Nelson (5-7).

Schumacher was the top player on the freshman team but tore knee cartilage in June. She had arthroscopic surgery three weeks ago and has already returned to practice.

The Marlins start Thursday, Aug. 31, at home against Walled Lake Central, which Baker labels the best team in Oakland County.

That's followed by a game with Grand Rapids Catholic Central and the 16th Annual Mercy Hoops Classic, which includes Plymouth Canton, Rochester Adams and Stevensville-Lakeshore.

"The tradition will help bring our players along," Baker said.

"We have a lot of time to work on."

"While we're adjusting to life in the fast lane, we could take some jumps; so it will be a new challenge."

"We won't be a typical Baker team in which the defense is more dominant than our offense. Right now the offense is ahead of the defense."
