The rear window of a red 1987 Ford pickup ($500), the rear window of a 1987 GMC van ($350) and a building window ($50) at Plastic Craft on Shiloh Avenue in Farmington Hills were broken with a rock and slingshot Aug. 25-26.

A rock was thrown through the rear window of a gray 1987 Chevy Blazer parked at Ellipse's Subs on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills Aug. 27.

AUTO THEFT

A white 1991 Chevy 8-10 Blazer worth $9,000 was stolen from the Old Orchard Theatre on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills Aug. 26-27.

SPOUSE ABUSE
Farmington Hills police arrested a Hills man, 29, for spouse abuse at 2:30 a.m. Aug. 27. The man and his wife, 24, were driving home toward their Section 18 home when they started arguing. The man grabbed his wife and began punching her while still driving. She left the pickup they were in once the man stopped. She called police from an apartment.

BREAK-INS
Farmington Hills police arrested

a Detroit youth, 17, for unlawful blood alcohol level (.07 percent) in a car near Washington Court in Farmington Hills and discovered a stolen AM/FM stereo worth $500. They also arrested the man, 21, who was with the youth and charged them both with breaking into a 1994 Jeep parked on Washington Court. Damage to the Jeep was $500.

The front passenger window of a white 1995 Lincoln parked at the Old Orchard Theatre on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills was smashed ($150) and a $250 Motorola car phone was stolen Aug. 27. A $250 car phone also was stolen from a 1995 Jeep after the passenger window was broken ($150) at the same location Aug. 27.

A door to the snack bar and one to the main entrance were damaged after the Farmington Glen Aquatic Club on Freedom Road was broken into Aug. 25. Nothing was believed to have been stolen.

Damage is estimated at $200.

BAD CHECK
A check for $562.80 to Diversified Business Products for copy machine toner came back with insufficient funds July 21.

UNDERAGE DRINKING
Farmington police ticketed a West Bloomfield man, 29, for contributing to the delinquency of minors after he admitted he bought alcohol for three girls, ages 14, 15 and 17. Police found one girl leaning over a guardrail and another lying on her back outside the Amoon Dairy Mart on Nine Mile and Farmington. They appeared to be ill. One girl was ticketed for possession of alcohol as a minor after police found a bottle of Bacardi rum. All three were staying over at friend's house in Farmington Hills. They told police they called the man and asked him to take them to a party.

Documentary contest open to senior citizens

MARY LINDA CALDERONE

Are you wondering why the contest has the word "guerrilla" in it? "Guerrilla" signifies an independent, loner-in-the-field videorecorder — someone without a "team."

The subject of the video may range as widely as your imagination and creativity lend. Programs

Attention Senior! We want you to enter the "Annual Guerrilla Camcorder Documentary Contest." Cash prizes have been made possible by Dr. Philip Singer, INFO TV-12 Volunteer. If you're 55 or older, you're eligible.

must be produced between January 1995 and December 1995. You may use a camcorder of any 8mm, Hi-8, one-person equipment. Entries are limited to documentaries of any length. Emphasis is not on production values but content.

So have some fun. Wipe dust off of that camcorder and win some money while you're at it. The first place award will be $300. Second place will take home $200. Third place receives an honorable mention certificate.

Dr. Singer and SWOCC Production Specialists Todd Whitman and Donnell Zeidman will judge the competition. Winners will be announced in the spring of 1996 at our annual Volunteer Recognition Evening.

Hurry up. The deadline is March 1, 1996.
