Stevenson takes another WLAA swim relays title

BY C.J. RISAK STAFF WRITER

Another year, another title... Or so it seems to go for Livonie Stevenson's girls swim team. Is there anyone in the Western Lakes Activitles Association ca-pable of stopping this Spartan ex-press?

Not at this juncture — meaning in this decade. The season-opening WLAA Re-lays, hosted by Plymouth Salem Thuraday, offer a typical example. By the mild-point of the event, coaches from the other 10 teams new (if indeed they needed con-vincing prior to the meet) that Stavenson could collect top hon-ors by almost any margin. "Are you kidding?" answered Salem coach Chuck Olson, when saked who other than Slevenson last won the Relays. "I can't re-member when they didin't win. "I'l's been four years, at least (five, to be precise)."

"You can put her with any other three swimmers, in any race, and they'll win," Olson said of Aristeo, with little (or no) cargoration. Aristeo, a junior, did get in the 200 backstoke relay and was part of a winner, with Julie Galleghen, Tonya Culp and Anne Moore (2:02,17). He's in perfect health. Yet Scout's the victim of a deadly epidemic that's sweeping through our neighborhoods. It's called overpopulation. The effects of this epidemic on the Michigan Humane Society have been staggering. Our shelters take in more than 150 new animals every single day of the year. Unfortunately, this number far exceeds people willing to adopt a pet. And it threatens to grow even larger without your help.

Please make a donation to the MHS. By doing so, you will help provide these homeless animals with food, shelter and medical attention. And most importantly, you'll buy them something they desperately need. Time.

Please give. Because only with your help will Scout, and other victims like him, have a fighting chance.

To make a contribution, send a check to the Michigan Humane Society, 7401 Chrysler Drive, Detroit, MI 48211. Or call us at MICHICAN (810) 852-7420 to place a donation on either

They fumbled five snaps, all of which were recovered, and lost 17 yards on another fumble when Gottlieb was blindsided midway through the second quarter on a pass attempt. To make matters worse for the Lakers, starting run-ning back Brent Andress left the game on the first play of the sec-ond half with a leg injury and never returned.

"We'll have top look at what we did and come up with a better so-lution," added Shrewsberry.
