2000 years later, Christianity's biggest competition is still the Lions.

Before you sit down for an afternoon with the Lions, Bears, Dolphins, Rams, Cowboys or Vikings, come spend an hour with some very nice Christians in the love, worship and fellowship of Jesus Christ.

MILITARY LEADERSHIP
Army Cadet Marcy R. Eastman and Jeffrey Roth received practical work in military leadership at the ROTC advanced camp at Fort Bragg, Fayetteville, N.C. The camp, attended by cadets between their third and fourth year of college, includes instruction in communications, management and survival training. Successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from college results in a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, Guard or Reserve. Eastman is the daughter of Arthur and Rochelle Eastman of Farmington. She is a graduate of Mercy High School. Roth is the son of Jerrold and Diane Roth of Farmington Hills. He is a student at the University of Notre Dame.

COMPLETES TRAINING
Army Pvt. Thomas J. Gorenflo II has completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. During training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid and Army history and traditions. Gorenflo is the son of Mary Gorenflo of Redford and Thomas Gorenflo of Farmington Hills.

ENTERS BASIC TRAINING
Army Reserve Pvt. Michael Kroll-kowski entered basic training at Fort Jackson, Columbia, S.C. During eight weeks of training the soldiers will study the Army mission, and will receive instruction in drill and ceremonies and special training in human relations.

Krollkowsky is the son of Ralph and Marie Krollkowsky of Farmington Hills and is a graduate of Farmington High School.

HE GRADUATED
Army Cadet Eric Meyer graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and was commissioned a second lieutenant after receiving a bachelor of science degree.

The lieutenant is scheduled for assignment to the Armor Officer Basic Course, Fort Knox, Ky. He is the son of Karl and Ursula Meyer of Farmington and is a graduate of Farmington High School.
