YOUR NEWSPAPER costs little but its value is great
Whether you buy it on a newsstand or pick it up at your home, your newspaper keeps you in touch with the world, the nation or your local community; depending on its scope. Of course you can get news headlines and summaries from your radio or TV, but for in-depth coverage of stories, nothing can equal your newspaper. You learn about upcoming events for you to enjoy or perhaps participate in. The editorial page presents people's opinions and asks for yours. You can read some good advice on many subjects. The classified section table of job needs and opportunities, lost and found notices and pets, and many other vital things. Best of all, the House of Worship directory, along with your newspaper itself, represents your choice of faith; one of the basic traditions in this great nation of ours.
