YOU ARE NEVER HANDICAPPED if you invoke God's love

We think of the handicapped as the blind, the deaf and those confined to wheelchairs; and we tend to feel sorry for them. Nevertheless, we often hear of the amazing accomplishments of some of these people. We couldn't have imagined a major league baseball pitcher doing a good job with only one arm, or a paralyzed woman, with a brush held in her teeth, painting beautiful flowers on greeting cards; and the incredible Helen Keller, who had more than one cross to bear. It seems that God helps those people to discover and develop their hidden talents to help overcome their hardships. Moreover, they make excellent employees, determined to prove themselves capable of any assignment. When God closes one door to them His love can help them open another one.
