New Hills officers: New Farmington Hills police officers Larry Fetherolf, left, and Shawn Smith were sworn in Sept. 18.

Two new officers join Hills police department

Two new police officers have been hired to fill openings in the Farmington Hills Department. The openings were created by retirements.

Deputy City Clerk Sue Rose sworn in Officer Shawn Smith and Officer Larry Fetherolf Sept. 18 at City Hall.

Smith, 24, joins the department after working for 2 years as a public safety officer in Beverly Hills. He is a graduate of Lutheran High East in Harper Woods.

Smith earned a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice from Ferris State University. He is a former public safety dispatcher at the Big Rapids University.

His hobbies include tennis, racquetball, golf and the martial arts.

Fetherolf, 28, was promoted after serving as a cadet with the Hills police beginning Dec. 18, 1994.

He is a graduate of Notre Dame High School in Harper Woods. He spent six years with the U.S. Marine Corps and is a graduate of Macomb Community College. Fetherolf attended the Oakland Police Academy in 1993 and served as an auxiliary officer with the Hills police for 2½ years.

He likes to hunt, camp and play golf.

Both officers have been assigned to the field training program for orientation.

Don't Sell Your Baby!

If it's time for your "baby" to leave home, donate that precious old car, truck or boat to Volunteers of America.

Donating is simple, fast and easy. Gifts qualify as tax deductible contributions for those who itemize. Receipts issued.

Volunteers of America has been serving southeast Michigan's needy since 1897. Funds derived from your vehicle can house a homeless mother and her children in our transition housing program for at least a month or more.
