

Big moment for bow hunters

OUTDOOR DISCOUNTS

BILL PARKER

I don't know about you, but I couldn't wait for Sunday to roll around. Opening day of the Michigan archery deer season is always highly anticipated in my neck of the woods. That anticipation was intensified for me last week as I heard from a few as hunters that really couldn't wait for Michigan's opening day. Darrell Saunders of Plymouth joined Southfield's Mark Coo and Ann Arbor's Jim Peters on a week-long caribou hunt Aug. 22-28 in Canispleau, Quebec. Hunting with Canadaventures Outdoors, the trio enjoyed outstanding success, returning home with two bulls each.

The largest bull had a rack with an impressive 33-inch spread. "We did very well," admitted Saunders. "It was too warm for the annual migration so we were basically hunting the local caribou in the area. I saw six caribou and got two of them. They were all in velvet. We each got a big bull and a nice young one."

Saunders had an exhilarating run-in with the biggest bull his party took. Having filled a tag the day before with a young bull, Saunders took up stand on a big rock along a lake shore.

"My buddy was about three-eighths of a mile up from me and I heard him shoot," explained Saunders. "It was raining, so I decided to walk over and see what was going on. I started walking down the trail and I turned a corner and this big bull was coming right at me, full-speed. I shot him in the neck at about 15 yards. It was simply red hot. I didn't even have time to blink."

Neighbors in camp
There were three other hunters in camp with Saunders' party and, ironically, two of them were also locals.

"It was neat," said Saunders. "Two of the other fellows were from Livonia and the other was from Windsor. We got together with them when we got home and traded pictures and stuff. They're real good guys."

Livonian's Bill Ellis and Vincent Grunau joined Alco Guban in the other party and they, too, experienced great success.

Between the three hunters they filled five of their six permits. All the caribou were bulls and all were in the 325-pound range.

"We really had a great time," said Ellis. "We're three old men, all retired, who go somewhere hunting together each year. The last two years we went to Montana and the year before that we hunted with Canadaventures. We had a good time the first time we went with them so we wanted to go back."

"We had a really good time in camp," he added. "It was nice sitting around with other people from Michigan, and (from) so close to home."

Canadian black bear
Lake Orion's Tom Morley and Don Kolodziejczak ventured north of Montreal for a week-long black bear hunt during the first week of September.

Hunting over bait with Lee Hayes Outfitters out of Kowloon, Manitoba, the Orion duo each returned home with a Canadian area, bettered that success this time around by dropping a huge 450-pound, brown-phase black bear.

Morley, who shot an Alaskan brown bear in 1990, begged a hefty 250-pound sow.

"It was a great hunt," said Morley. "There were four of us in our group and we saw close to 40 bears between us."

"The day before I got mine I had a sow with three cubs come in and they almost climbed the tree and I was in. We saw moose and (white-tailed) deer. The outfitter took care of us. It was just a good trip all the way around."

Morley's Alaskan brown bear is currently on display at the Grand Mountain outlet which recently opened in Waterford behind the Summit Place Mall. Morley, an avid hunter, also has a wild boar and a mountain goat on display at the store.

Fishing club forming

There's a new fishing club in town called the Fishing Buddy's Fishing Club.

Harold Leider, of Rochester Hills, is organizing the club, and is seeking new members. Leider fished the St. Clair River Monday night and limited-out on walleye.

Leider is interested in meeting other anglers in the area. The club is informal and the main objective is to get anglers together.

Anyone interested in hooking up with Leider and the Fishing Buddy's Fishing Club can contact him at (810) 550-0556.

Hunters and anglers are urged to report their success. Questions and comments are also encouraged. Send information to Outdoors, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, MI 48009. Fax information to (810) 644-1314 or call Bill Parker evenings at (810) 901-2573.

The Mustangs (2-1 and 3-2) had the momentum at halftime after cutting the Harrison lead to 21-7 with just 32 seconds left in the half.

"When it went to 21-7, I thought if they drove down and scored to start the second half, we'd be in a real dofight," Harrison coach John Herrington said. "But we held them and then exploded."

After forcing a Northville punt to start the third quarter, the Hawks went 46 yards in eight plays to make the score 28-7.

Harrison scored again the next time it had the ball. On his 50-yarder, Granger cut through the defense, running to the right sideline and back to the center.

"It was a little more than (Granger tonight)," Herrington said. "We were doing different things up front and went away from some of our tendencies. But when he got in the open field that was him."

In the fourth quarter, Jeff Aschoff had a 1-yard TD run and Jared Hopkins added a 3-yarder to complete the scoring.

Harrison had all of its 393 yards on the ground. Herrington was pleased by the hard running of fullback Nick Shaleb, who added 39 yards on five carries.

"Shaleb is developing as a runner, which is a big plus for us," he said. "No matter how great a body you have, there's somebody around who will stop him someday."

"I thought we played our best defense," Herrington added. "We hit hard and got on Kersy. We only had 20 healthy players, but all of them did a good job."
