■ INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS GALLERY
To Oct. 13 — The gallery at 27 Grand River East, Detroit, presents Chris Turner, Carlyle Pare, Sam Vogel, Nowels and Dug Rusin in a joint effort of empowerment through art. Nowels shows paintings that celebrate the creativity of the South African Ndebele women, and sculpture. Pare's installation consists of moveable clay toy pieces that invite visitors to participate in her art. Turner returns with his latest representations of "rawness and spirituality." Call (313) 961-1188.

■ BIRMINGHAM GLOOMFIELD ART ASSOCIATION
Through Oct. 14 — "Landscapes Real and Imagined," an exhibit by the Birmingham Society of Women Painters, continues at 1516 S. Cranbrook Road, Birmingham. The Rental/Sales Gallery at the BBAA features "Small Paintings" priced at $100 or less by BSWP members; all proceeds from sales will benefit the BBAA building fund. Call (810) 644-0866.

■ DONNA JACOBS GALLERY LTD.
Through Oct. 14 — "Persian Passage" at 574 N. Woodward, Birmingham, presents art from Persia. Featured are 13 bronzes from Northwest Persia, 14th to 2nd century B.C., and a pair of silver bracelets with detailed animal terminals, circa 900 to 800 B.C. Perhaps the smallest object in the gallery is a charming gold lion-headed bead of Western Asiatic origin, dated at 600 B.C. Call (810) 540-1600.

■ ROBERT KIDD GALLERY
Through Oct. 14 — An exhibit of new paintings by Dennis Wojtkiewicz continues at 107 Townsend, Birmingham. Wojtkiewicz is a realist painter who creates works suffused by light, drama and atmosphere. Call (810) 642-3509.

■ ARIANA GALLERY
To Oct. 14 — "Stepped in Tradition: The Contemporary Teapot," an exhibit of works by more than 100 potters from the United States, Canada and England, continues at 119 S. Main, Royal Oak, curated by gallery owner Ann Kuffler and Dany Swidler, formerly of the Swidler Gallery. Call (810) 546-8810.

■ LAWRENCE STREET GALLERY
Through Oct. 14 — The gallery's sixth annual invitational exhibit, with works in a variety of media by 50 well-known and emerging area artists, continues at 6 N. Saginaw, Pontiac. Call (810) 334-6716.

■ REVOLUTION: A GALLERY PROJECT

March of Dimes

Jail and Bail

Send your boss, co-worker, or spouse to the SLAMMER and support the March of Dimes Campaign for Healthier Babies October 17-20 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

HOW CAN I HAVE SOMEONE "DO TIME?"

- Call (810) 422-3200 to book your pick-up.
- The March of Dimes will issue an official warrant for your "jailed" friend.
- The March of Dimes Police will pick up the accused and take him/her to the nearest jail site.
- Once in the March of Dimes Court of Law, the accused goes before our judge, bail is set and the jailed is sentenced to one hour "hard labor."
- Behind bars, all prisoners have unlimited use of our telephone to call their family, friends, and co-workers to raise their bail in the form of pledges to the March of Dimes.
- All inmates are released after raising their bail or spending one hour in jail—whichever comes first.
- March of Dimes Police return the prisoner to their normal day.

JAIL SITES:

Renaissance Center, Detroit
Tel-Twelve Mall, Southfield
Wonderland Mall, Livonia
Macomb Mall, Roseville
Arboretum Mall, Ann Arbor
Freshtown Mall, Monroe

Plus, go on-line with the Observer & Eccentric as you bail out your favorite athletes in Cyberjail with O&E On-Line locks in Cyber-jail <http://oeonline.com/cyberjail.html>

Their equality to win exciting, valuable prizes! For your bail request to (810) 422-3229.

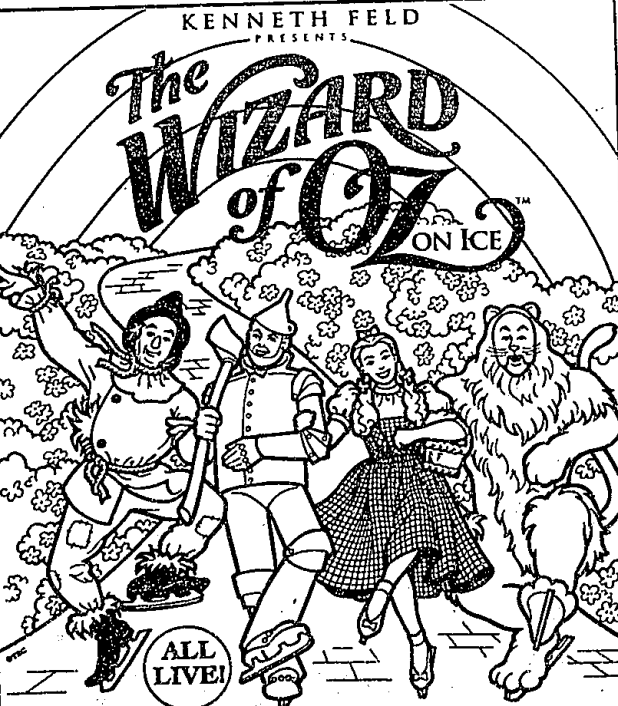

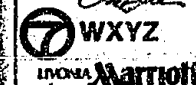

All the money raised through Jail and Bail will benefit the March of Dimes Campaign for Healthier Babies. Through research, community service and public and professional health education, the March of Dimes is working to reduce the incidence of infant mortality and birth defects.

The goal of the March of Dimes is a healthy start in life for all children.
