WARHOL EXHIBIT

The merchants of Bloomfield Plaza, Telegraph and Maple in Bloomfield Hills, will host a special opening reception for an exclusive exhibit of 32 limited edition screenprints by Andy Warhol. The reception will take place 6-9 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 26, at Mchus Red Fox, Telegraph and Maple. Tickets are $25 per person, with proceeds to benefit the Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association. People in attendance will enjoy wine and hors d'oeuvres as well as tours and presentations by popular art historian Hope Palmer. For ticket information and reservations, call (810) 644-0866. The exhibit, the first in the metro Detroit area, will be open to the public during plaza hours Friday, Oct. 27, to Sunday, Nov. 5.

ON THEIR TOES

Cecchetti Ballet Week continues to Oct. 16, with a historical photographic exhibit and other events at Wayne State University. The week honors Enrico Cecchetti (1850-1928), the celebrated Italian dancer, teacher and founder of the Cecchetti method of ballet training. Rose Marie Gregor of Farmington, Community House dance director of the Birmingham Ballet and Jazz School for the past 32 years, teaches the Cecchetti graded method of classical ballet to students from the Birmingham/Bloomfield area. Gregor is a member of the executive board of the Cecchetti Council of America, ballet examiner for the 16 chapters in areas throughout the United States, and master teacher for teachers and students at Cecchetti-sponsored seminars nationwide. Some of her students who have been successful in the dance profession are Peggy Benson Burt, Judy Lynas Harrison, Janet Lynas Loper, Lisa Powell, Julie Powell Dick, Suzanne
