

Community school events scheduled for October

The following events will take place at the Farmington Community School, 30416 Shilwaukee:

■ Halloween Treats, Saturday, Oct. 14. The one-day class takes place 9-11 a.m. and 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. (two sessions). Create your own chocolate treats for those special trick-or-treaters. Material fee is $5.

■ "Who Will Decide For Me When I Can't?" on Wednesday, Oct. 18. The class will be held 7-9 p.m. Margo Gorchow, registered nurse, will speak about how to designate a person to make your medical decisions when you are incapacitated, using Michigan's Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care form. Each attendee will receive a packet of information.

tion including a free form. Cost is $3.50.

■ Video production, Thursday, Oct. 10. The class will be held 7-9 p.m. Cost is $9. Take your camcorder knowledge one step further. Learn the elements of good video production. Camcorder needed.

■ "Couples Communicating Together", Thursday, Oct. 10. The class will meet 7-9 p.m. This workshop helps couples keep the line of communication open.

■ Neat, Sweet Halloween Treats, Saturday, Oct. 21. Classes 9-11 a.m.; 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Cost $9 each class.

For information, call 459-3333.

Supermarkets offer flu shots

Farmer Jack Supermarkets, in conjunction with the visiting Nurse Service and Hoople Foundation's annual flu immunization program, will offer flu shots during October at metro Detroit Farmer Jack stores, including two in Farmington.

On Friday, Oct. 13, shots will be given 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Downtown Farmington Center Farmer Jack, and on Saturday, Oct. 28, shots will be offered from 9 a.m. to noon at the Farmer Jack at Nine Mile and Farmington roads.

Vaccinations are available to people 18 and older at a cost of $10 each.

The Centers for Disease Control suggests that some people check with their doctors before being vaccinated. This includes anyone with an allergy to eggs, anyone with a history of Guillain-Barre Syndrome, women who are or may be pregnant and people who are ill or have a fever.
