"EVIL IN MANY DISGUISES"
SHOULD BE LEFT FOR HALLOWEEN
That night will soon be here once more
When children go from door to door,
In costumes ranging far and wide,
Their own identities to bide
As red or blue or yellow rangers,
Neighbors' boys will seem like strangers;
Then sometimes the girls appear
As witches to inspire fear.
Now grown-ups often are inclined
Toward evil of a different kind.
It's easy to be led astray;
So learn through faith the "evil" scene
Is just for kids on Halloween.
Evil is easy, and has infinite form
— Blaise Pascal
Do not overcome evil, but overcome evil with good.
— Romans 12:21
