Town meeting on cable

Town hall meetings used to be held in barns and village squares. When you consider Ted Koppel and Bill Bonda bringing the concept of the town hall meeting to the arena of broadcast TV in the '90s — you just might say, "We've come a long way." Did you know through community television, you can do the very same thing?

The town hall meeting has come to INFO TV-12 this month on a special edition of "Let's Talk" hosted by Ben Marks. The program tackles one of the most challenging problems in America today, "Drugs and the Effect They are Having on Our Young People."

And why did Marks choose this topic? "More and more, we are seeing the dire consequences of the effect of drugs on your young people," he says. "It seems to me we are losing the war on drugs. I thought it would be a good idea to have a panel discussion on the subject and open it up to the public. Maybe with a little brainstorming, we can come up with some answers."

The event took place on Oct. 10. Producer Karen McMillan, SWOCC Production Specialist Todd Whitman, Time Warner

Production Specialist Marci Hensley and crew members Devon Croakey, Don Nelson and Mike Brennan were there to tape the town hall meeting. It will be shown on INFO TV-12 at 3 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, at 9 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 31, and at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 3.

The panel of guests includes: Tony Antone, from Sen. Spencer Abraham's office; Paul Welday, representing U.S. Rep. Joseph Knollenberg; state Sen. William VanRegenmorter; and state Rep. Michael Nye.

Although U.S. Sen. Carl Levin was unable to attend, a tape of his comments was played.

Sheriffs and police chiefs of nearby communities participating on the panel were Wayne County Sheriff Robert Ficano, Oakland County Sheriff John Nichols, Macomb County Sheriff's Inspector Rick Kalm, Farmington Hills Police Chief William Dwyer, Detroit Police Chief Isiah McKinnon, Southfield Police Chief Joseph Thomas and Sterling Heights Chief Thomas Derocha.

Student panelists included: Melissa Porman and Janelle Horton, both of Farmington High School; Harrison High's Brendan Fay and North Farmington's Stephanie Wylie.

Tune in at 3 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 27, at 9 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 31, and at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 3, and let me know if you think the dialogue was as beneficial and informative as I did.

The next SWOCC meeting is at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 8, at Farmington City Hall.

The next Cable Access Committee meeting is at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 14, at the SWOCC office.

Mary Linda Calderone is the Community Outreach Coordinator for the Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission.

Lincolnshire hay ride set

Little ghosts, goblins and other trick-or-treaters in the Lincolnshire Estates subdivision will enjoy a hay ride Saturday at 9 p.m. through the subdivision in Section 24.

The tractor-driven wagon will go through the subdivision loaded with dressed-up children. The kids will also enjoy refreshments as part of the fun.

For further information, call Nancy Boese at 477-6132.
