Farmington Rotary to honor Harrison coach Herrington

The Farmington Rotary Club will honor John Herrington, Harrison High's football coach at noon Tuesday, Oct. 31.

Herrington will receive the Vocational Service Award.

This is the 18th year that the Farmington Rotary Club has recognized an outstanding member of the Farmington community. The Vocational Service Award is being given to Herrington because of commitment to his vocation, success, and service to Harrison High students and athletes.

Herrington has been head coach at Harrison High School for more than 25 years.

John Herrington

Herrington's Harrison High teams have an impressive winning record. They have reached 31 state semi-finals and have had 18 championship seasons. The coach is also the offensive coordinator.

Herrington grew up in the Waterford area and is a graduate of Central Michigan University with a bachelor of science degree in education. He is also a graduate of Eastern Michigan University with a master of science degree in social studies.

Herrington is married to Fran. They have a son, Layne, and a daughter, Linda.

Celebration to mark center opening, construction start

The Botsford Continuing Health Care Corp. will celebrate Tuesday.

The grand opening of the Town Commons center and the beginning of construction of the replacement long-term care facility will be celebrated from 2:30-4 p.m.

The Town Commons are part of the Botsford Commons development that includes apartments and homes especially designed for seniors and will include a new, state-of-the-art, long-term care facility.

Once completed, the community will not only offer independent living but also a continuum of care services from assisted living to long-term care.

The property, on wooded property south of Freedom and east of Tuck, is on the grounds of what was once the Farmington Nursing Home and before that a hospital and school for handicapped children.

The new development will include a 51-unit apartment complex and 86 houses in the $115,000 to $185,000 price range.

Don't Sell Your Baby!

Homes for the Holidays!

October 28 - November 6

Homes for the Holidays

1995

"Homes for the Holidays" is a national "Decorating Event" designed to help turn houses into homes for the holidays and raise money for Ronald McDonald Houses across the country.

World & Olympic figure skating champion Dorothy Hamill is the national hostess for this event. She has autographed a Village Animated Skating Pond that will be auctioned by Grandma's Loft with the proceeds going to Ronald McDonald House.

Grandma's Loft visitors will receive a free lapel pin and decorating brochure.

Decorating seminars, Village displays and gorgeous holiday decorations will give shoppers lots of tips, ideas and inspiration for making their own home a holiday decorating event and, Christmas 95, the best Christmas...ever.
