

Garden club will host craft show

After 17 years of practice, members of the North Farmington Garden Club are certain their Annual Juried Arts and Crafts Show will be perfect.

The event is from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 4 at O.E. Dunkel Middle School on 12 Mile Road between Orchard Lake and Farmington roads.

This year there will be 80 juried artists featuring a wide variety of crafts.

The popular craft show began in 1978 and is the only North Farmington Garden Club fundraiser providing the money needed to maintain the many beautiful gardening projects shared with the community.

As you visit the Farmington YMCA, take a special quiet time out to enjoy the Garden of The Five Senses. Children love the to touch, smell and taste the gardens.

Then drive down 12 Mile Road and see the breathtaking floral showcase in front of Dunkel Middle School that encourages civic as well as student pride in the appearance of this local school.

Additionally, the garden club participates in planting projects at the Warner Historical Mansion and Heritage Park as well as the support of many other garden projects and scholarships.

Love affair

Local talent: John Marshall of Pleasant Ridge is Le Viconte de Valmont and Kathleen Lietz of Farmington Hills is the innocent Cecile Volanges in the production of "Dangerous Liaisons" running Nov. 3-19 at Stagecrafters Baldwin Theatre, 415 S. Lafayette, Royal Oak.

Musicale celebrates 30 years

The Farmington Musicale recently started its 30th year with a membership tea held at the Farmington Hills Library to honor all 25- to 30-year members.

The musicale's founder, Irene Winnie, was present for the event. Winnie lives in Traverse City and made the trip to commemorate this special occasion. Some 13 people who have been members for 25 years or longer attended. They were each given a flower and warmly welcomed by the group.

A musical program was presented by James Nuckolls, pianist and husband of member, Susan Nuckolls.

Elaine Vermiglio, pianist and Pat Semerjian, vocalist. Tea was served by May Arvo and her committee following the program.

The Farmington Musicale meets on the first Wednesday of the month, usually at 12:30 p.m. at the Farmington Hills branch of the Farmington Community Library. The group is affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Its main function is to provide scholarships for local talented young musicians and also to offer music programs to the community at a minimal fee.
