The more people think and talk about a water system the more they want it. That is the only thing standing in the way of complete happiness in Farmington.

A Novi township man got a divorce because his wife kissed the hired man. No wonder the farmers complain of the difficulty in keeping hired help on the place.

The next regular meeting of the Ladies' Union will be held at the home of Mrs. Dexter Irish, May 18. A ten-cent lunch will be served.

Messrs. Warner and Wilber made an automobile trip last Saturday to the former's big farms at Owendale. On Sunday they visited many of the towns on the thumb, riding nearly 75 miles during the day and returned home Monday.

We are in receipt of a stalk of oats from Harold Riley, who is located at Valdosta, Ga., measuring 5 ft., 1 1/2 inches in length. The head of this stalk was filled with large nice oats and shows that they can raise some oats in Georgia.

Charles Doty and Miss Erminnie Bradshaw were business callers in Clarkston on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hubbard called at the home of Andrew Edgar in Clarkston Sunday. Mr. Edgar has been quite ill, but is now improving in health.

Mrs. L. L. Brown and daughter, Eva Doris, and Mrs. Lucy Wager of Rose were guests of their mother, Mrs. James Kneale, on Sunday.
