The Rams finished 4-5 in 1994. Smith's first season as head coach. They were Class A last year, but a boost in enrollment moved them to AA.

"All the 'so-called experts' should get out of town more," said Smith, a former Detroit Denby standout who played at Michigan State University. "I know he's very busy at his desk, he types a lot, but does he ever get out of Wayne County? There are good teams up north."

"We come from a very good league that has made us playoff tough. We're used to looking at speed and being able to stop it. We're fortunate to have big, tough kids that like playing defense."

This is Smith's second time around with Holt. He was a defensive coordinator for 11 years before becoming the head coach at Danville and Eaton Rapids. His Danville team qualified for the playoffs in 1990 and '92.

The head coaching position at Holt opened up last year when Rocky Shafer resigned to concentrate solely on the Rams' wrestling program. Smith said he has started a rigorous weight lifting program and made it mandatory for the football players to play a spring sport to stay conditioned.

When Mach looks at the Rams, he sees the Shamrocks. "They're a very good football

WHAT: Michigan High School Athletic Association Class AA football championship.
 WHEN: 1 p.m. Saturday.
 WHERE: Pontiac Silverdome.
 WHO: Redford Catholic Central (12-0) vs. Holt (12-0).

ADMISSIONS: $7 per two-game session (the Class AA championship is part of the first session Saturday) includes the Class D championship at 10 a.m.

KEY PLAYERS: Holt — QB Paul Anderson (6-0, 185 m.), 450 yards rushing, 750 passing, eight TD passes; WR Matt Cooper (6-3, 165 m.), 27 catches, 18-130 yards; RB-DB Justin Dungey (5-2, 225 m.), 900 yards, leads team in sacks; DL-Ole Steve Roberson (6-2, 205 m.).

CC — FB-DB John Spotsky (5-11, 235 m.), 1,208 yards, 15 touchdowns; RB Rich DePaula (5-10, 230); QB Greg Call (6-0, 165 m.); RB Greg Alarie (5-7, 170 m.); OG-DE Mike Smiley (6-0, 210 m.); TE Eric Gibb (6-7, 250); 23 catches, 200 yards; LB Mike Brooks (5-11, 220) and Tom Smiley (6-0, 205).

FINAL PREPARATIONS: The teams have prepared this week in similar environments, miles apart. Holt has practiced at Michigan State's indoor practice facility, while CC has practiced at the University of Michigan's indoor facility.

team," Mach said. "Their defense is very good, some big people who are good athletes. They get to the ball real quick and don't hurt themselves. "It's no accident they're there."

They control the ball on offense, are patient, run a power game with action. I think it's going to be a real tough hall game, one that goes the full 48 minutes. The only unknown to most people is they haven't heard about Holt before."

Holt's best lineman is 6-foot-2, 265-pound senior Steve Roberson, who plays tackle on both sides of the line. The Rams also employ active 6-1, 220-pound senior Paul Markel on the line, while their best linebacker, 6-2, 225-pound senior Justin Dungey is outstanding in pursuit.

The Rams' offense is led by Dungey, who was moved from fullback to tailback late in the season to take advantage of his ability to turn the corner. The fullback is 6-8, 190-pound senior Doug Birch.

Playing quarterback is 6-0, 185-pound senior Paul Anderson, who has passed for 700 yards and run for 450 more.

"We've got a lot of respect for CC," Smith said. "They run a real nice power game, run I think what they call the 'Wham' play, the power I over their big studs. I'm really impressed with their linebackers and defensive ends. But we're not just going to the Dome, we're going to play in it."
