Beaver big hit with bowlers

What a nos-telgia trip last week as "The Beaver," Jerry Mathers, came to town to help celebrate the reopening of Big Beaver Road in Troy. He made an appearance at and Mixed Teams.

All bowling is at Cloverlanes in 21 through April 28. Entrants must be members of the GDBA or DWBA. For more information call (810) 773-6350.

bounding usually adds up to one thing poor results.

Madonna University's women's basketball team did not shoot the ball well in its Wednesday game against visiting Lake Superior State, nor did it board well, which is a good reason why the Ledy Crusaders absorbed a 75-67 loss.

The defeat left Madonna at 3-3 for the season.

The Crusaders were led by Mary Murrey, who totaled 21 points and seven rebounds. Francine Williams added 13 points and Dawn Pele scored nine. Which shows the starting front line for Madonna did its job scoring, going 19-for-39 from the floor (63.4 percent). But they grabbed a total of just 16 rebounds between the three of them; the Lakers outboarded Madonna 47-30.

And the Crusaders starting backcourt of Meegan Marlatt and Katie Cushman were off-target, converting only 4-of-24 from the field combined (16.7 percent). Cushman did contribute four as-sists.

For the game, Madonna made 23-of-78 from the floor (35.9 per-cent) to Lake Superior's 20-of-63 (42.6) Katle Hoy led the Lakers with 19 points and three steals. Heather Hopkins added 17 points and Chris Nance chipped in with 15 points and a team best eight rebounds.

The Crusaders kept it close for a half, trailing 34-33 at the intermission. But their fortunes faded in half No. 2.

■ Oakland U. 104, Medonna 74: The Fighting Crusaders managed to make a game of it for a balf, trailing just 44:39 at the break Tuesday at Madonna. After that, well, it was a differ-
