How to dress for TV cameras

Surprise! Surprise! You've COMMETTON to appear on a tolevision program. Of course, you'll want to look your very best. In a previous column, I gave you some tipa on district the surprise of the surprise of human eye, you'll want to shaw very closely the day of your scheduled appearance.

Ladies, in order to look good in front of, the camera, use more make-up than you would normally wear on the street. But that doean't mean pranticing for Hallowen either. You don't want to look embalined. Avoid bright colors on the face and any make-up that contains glitter. Sitck to natural colors and earth tones. Make sure your make-up illne along the hairline or make-up line along the hair line you tuanil atylo. Get a hair cut within two weeks of your schooluded TV performance. Make sure your hair stays out of your schooluded TV performance. Make sure your hair stays out form the camera.
Ladies, your hairstyle should.

Ladies, your hairstyle should be away from your face and out of your eyes. Use a mirror to view your profile. If your hair is in the way of your face, restyle it. Bangs-can create a shadow that blocks your eyes. You'll want the camera to clearly see your face from all angles.

to clearly see your face from all angles.

Most of all, be relaxed in front in of the cameri. The best way to accomplish this lit to know your material and be well prepared. Just lenging you're talking to a good friend out there. Talk in your dursal conversational tone with senthusiasm about your subject.

Follow these tips and you'll look and sound great on TV.
