with four unanswered goals in the third. John Rogan scored twice during the surge. The first assist went to goalie Rick Marston. The second goal, 20 seconds later, was unassisted.

Eric Bratcher made it 6-2 on assists from Mark Wollschlaeger and Brad Karabelski.

Brian Karabelski capped the scoring with an unassisted goal, his second of the night, with two CC players sitting in the penalty box.

Bratcher had a power-play goal in the opening period.

Joe Beaudoin, on an assist from brother Kevin, tallied the second goal. Brad Karabelski had the other from the Beaudoin brothers.

FRANKLIN 4, DEXTER 3: A pair of second-period goals by Greg Job carried Livonia Franklin (3-0-1 overall) to the non-league Friday win over the host Dreadnaughts in a game played at Ann Arbor's Yost Arena.

Job tallied the game-winner just 21 seconds into the second period on a power-play from Ed Kruschka and Kevin Bernard.

Job then added an insurance goal from Kruschka and Tony Sala.

It was 2-2 after one period as Chris Mason (from Eric Hillsbrand) and Kruschka (from Bernard) tallied goals for the Patriots.

Franklin outshot Dexter, 30-20, as Tom Taylor was the winning goaltender. The Patriots' penalty-killing unit was sensational.

Franklin fought off all nine, including two times with a pair of men short.
