Reese earned respect despite not having staggering statistics. He averaged 14.6 points, six assists and 4.5 rebounds per game as a senior.

"People would tell me: 'You have to do this; you have to score so many points,'" Reese said. "A lot of other winners were averaging 20, 30 points a game. If that's what people voted on, I wasn't going to win it. I just thought about being runner-up for the award. I wanted to be at least second. I know my stats weren't awesome, I wasn't going to cry if I didn't get it, but I would cry if I did get it."

9. Garden City resident Greg Ryan makes the 1995 United States Junior Olympic baseball team: The Dearborn Divine Child standout won a medal as a member of the U.S. Junior Olympic baseball team. Donahue won most of his college games while at Highland Park Community College from the late '60s to the mid-'80s. He also spent several years as coach of St. Mary's College in Orchard Lake before the school voted to drop the basketball program following the 1992 season.

"It was elusive, because you wait 3 1/2 years to get it," said Donahue, who coached the last three seasons at Redford Bishop Borgess.

Some more to remember

Jack Reardon retires as Livonia Stevenson football coach: The only varsity head football coach in the history of Livonia Stevenson announced his retirement in early February. Reardon had a 168-97-1 overall record, guiding the Spartans to 13 division or league titles, two state playoff berths and two undefeated seasons.

His last team was one of his best as the Spartans finished the 1994 season with a 9-2 record, losing in the Class AA regional final to Westland John Glenn.

"His trademark was discipline, his honesty and straightforwardness," Stevenson Athletic Director Roger Frayer said. "They don't make guys like that anymore."

Observed lost another long-time coach, Westland John Glenn's Norm Hoopes, to retirement later in the spring. Hoopes took his team to three Final Four appearances, including consecutive trips in 1993 and '94.

The Plymouth Canton and Salem athletic departments undergo major changes: Two long-serving members in the Plymouth Canton and Salem athletic departments, Paul Cummings and Gary Balconi, retired. Brian Wolcott — a former All Big Ten pitcher while at Michigan State University, who most recently worked in the Birmingham School District — succeeds Cummings as director of athletics of both schools.

Balconi's replacement as Salem's athletic coordinator, meanwhile, is John Robinson, whose latest position was as coordinator of district athletic trainers for the Farmington school system.

Another change occurred in the fall of '95 as Sue Heilmann took over as Canton's athletic coordinator when Jim Finn left.

Garden City senior swimmer/sooner player April Rowland makes great progress: Rowland makes great progress after going into a coma following an automobile accident: On the morning of Tuesday, Sept. 26, Rowland was involved in a two-car accident on her way to school with a classmate. She suffered fluid on the brain, a broken pelvis, gashes on her leg and was in a coma six days.

"It was tough and go at first," her mother, Fran Rowland, said. "Now, I really think it's a miracle."

Within several weeks Rowland was in physical therapy at the University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital. She plans to finish her high school degree, then attend the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

Garden City's boys basketball team upssets Westland John Glenn in the first round of the Class A district at Belleville: Westland John Glenn finished the Class A state quarter-final game in 1994 and was poised for a return trip before a team of over-sevens from Garden City defused the Rockets, 68-59, in a 1995 district semifinal at Belleville.

The Cougars' defense held Glenn's 6-11 center Guy Rucker, bound for the University of Iowa, to 12 points. Junior guard J. J. Males led the Cougars with 24 points.

Glenn bowed out at 16-4 overall, while Garden City finally got above .500 with the win for an 11-10 record.

Sophomore guard Lorenzo Guess finished with 29 points before fouling out with 5:30 left in the fourth quarter and Wayne won 65-63. Junior guard Jameel Wooden also had 26 points, including six three-point baskets.

"I told them, 'It's state time; you can do it; you have to step up,'" Coach Rowland said. "I thought they would pull it off and win in regulation. The ball just bounced the wrong way."

CC baseball team: The Shamrocks were another team led by underclassmen, but still advanced to the semifinal round of the Class A state playoffs. The Shamrocks' ending wasn't as suspenseful, as they lost 10-9 to Rochester Adams, another team loaded with underclassmen.

Livonia Franklin's best boys soccer season: The Patriots, behind All-Observer first-team players Eric Bowman and Robert Vega, upset Redford Catholic and Livonia Churchill en route to their first-ever Class A district championship.

It finally took Livonia Stevenson to knock off the Cinderella Patriots, masterfully coached to a 16-7 overall record by Dave Hebert.

The death of Dan Krueger, former CC wrestling star: The CC and Plymouth/Canton communities mourned the loss of Krueger (son of Plymouth Salem wrestling coach Ron Krueger), who died in an auto accident in September. Krueger was a freshman wrestler at Eastern Michigan and a runner-up at the 1994 state meet.

Lutheran Westland, Livonia Stevenson cross country teams:

The Lutheran Westland boys cross country team and the Livonia Stevenson girls cross country team finished second in Class C and Class A, respectively, at the state meet.

Brad Polkinghorne was 13th individually to lead the Lutheran Westland boys and sophomore Kelly Travis was fifth individually to lead the Spartans.

Bernie Holorwick returns to coaching: The former CC coach took over as Madonna men's coach, replacing Bill Sharpe, who was fired.

Farmington Hills Harrison shut out of playoffs: The Hewia won another Western Lakes title but uncharacteristically were shut out 40-0 by eventual Class A state runner-up South Lyon in the first round of the playoffs. It was the Hawks' worst loss in nearly three decades. They were trying to win their third straight state title.

Livonia Ladywood volleyball team: The Blazers beat the area's second-best team, Plymouth Salem, soundly in the Class A district and advanced to the semifinals before losing to Port Huron Northern.
