

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

VANDALISM

The passenger door window was pried open causing $150 in damage to a 1995 green Chevy Monte Carlo at the Cordoba Apartments on Cordoba in Farmington Hills Jan. 5 and a $250 AM/FM cassette stereo was stolen.

The windshield was broken and right corner panel damaged on a 1994 Nissan Altima parked at Page's Food & Spirits on Farmington Road Jan. 6, causing $600 damage.

Four tires were slashed ($400) on a 1994 Ford Explorer parked on Echo Valley in Farmington Hills Jan. 6.

The driver's side window was broken ($750) on a white 1993 Chevy Corvette parked at the Farmer Jacks on Haggerty in Farmington Hills Jan. 4.

The left side of a 1995 Chevy Lumina parked at the River Valley Apartments on Nine Mile was keyed ($500) Jan. 6-7.

FIRE DEPARTMENT RUNS

Farmington Hills firefighters made 88 runs for the week of Jan. 1-7 including 46 (52 percent) medical emergencies, four fires, nine rescues and four hazard calls.

FIRES

Farmington Hills firefighters from Stations 2 and 3 put out a chimney fire at a residence on Ontago in Farmington Hills at 10 p.m. Jan. 5. The fire had gotten inside a wall near the fire place. Damage to the house was $1,000 with $100 in damage to contents.

Farmington Hills firefighters from Stations 1 and 3 put out a fire in the laundry room of an apartment building at the Indian Creek Apartments on Indian Creek in Farmington Hills at 5:33 p.m. Jan. 8. Laundry items and clothing stored near a water heater had caught fire. There was $3,000 in damage to the building and $6,000 in damage to the contents.

ASSAULT

A Detroit woman, 24, told Farmington Hills police that a Hills man, 40, offered to take her home from work but stopped at an apartment on Middlebelt at 11 p.m. Jan. 2 where he made sexual advances and tried to kiss her. She refused and he then drove her home.

A Highland Park woman, 48, told Farmington Hills police that a Detroit woman, 20, who had been fired, demanded paperwork at the office on Farmington Road where the two had worked together. When told it was against company policy, the young woman yelled and when the older woman tried to telephone for help, the younger woman grabbed the receiver from her, pulled the cord from the phone and threw it on the ground. The older woman, with help from co-workers, was able to get out of the office and call police.

A Farmington Hills man, 30, said a man hit him with a rake several times and tried to put his head through a kitchen window in his back yard on Haynes Jan. 4. He had cuts on his right cheek and knuckles. The attacker left with another male in a red GMC Jimmy.
