SPORTS

FARMINGTON HILLS SPORTS SCENE

Raiders keep winning

orth Farmington won its fifth consecutive dual meet without a loas in boys awimming Thursday.

Jason Spoer won two events and anchored the winning meetley relay team as the Raiders defeated visiting Westland John Glenn 119-67.

Speer awam the 50-yard freestyle in 22.84 and the 100 in 49.97. Dan Gabriel, Phil 23.41, Patrick Duthle and Speer combined for a 1:45.25 time in the relay.

Gabriel also won the 200 freestyle (2:00.93), Jay Rands the 500 freestyle (2:00.87), Tim Muir the backatroke, (1:06.61) and Zaid the breaatstroke (1:06.51).

The 400 freestyle relay team of Chris and Jay

(1:06.51).

The 400 freestyle relay team of Chris and Jay Rands, Matt Zaid and Justin Hawkins had a winning time of 505.98.

Glenn's Ryan Zoumbaris won the 1M (2:18.96) and helped the Rockets win the 200 freestyle relay (1:39.9).

North entertains Fermi

North entertains Farmington on Thursday.

Farmington gymnastics

Farmington gymnastics

amington's girls gymnastics team may have had a good day in the all-around, but all around it wann't such a hot day.

Hartland defeated Farmington, 132.85 to 128.8,
Wednesday to make the Falcons 1-2 in the Western Lakes Activities Association and 4-3 overall.

Farmington swept the top five places in the allaround, because Hartland didn't enter any of its team members in all the events.

Sarah Nolan captured first place in the floor exercise with a score of 8.7, but teammate Brook Rublin won the all-around, 33.55 to 32.05, Rubin was second on the beam (8.65) and bars (8.0), and alewas fourth on vault (8.4) and floor exercise (8.5).

Noien tied teammate Keily Barsnie for fifth in the vault (8.5), Marie Law (8.2) and Keily Misch
(8.0) were fourth and fifth on the beam. Law (31.45), Barnie (30.7) and Misch (30.55) placed third, fourth and fifth overall.

Farmington had team acores of 33.25 on the vault, 23.55 on bars, 32.7 on beam and 33.3 on floor.

Alpena tops OCC cagers

akland Community College made it to Alpena all right, but the result wasn't all right.

Alpena Community College recorded an 69-82 victory in men's basketball that left both teams 2-2 in the conference.

The Raiders dropped to 7-8 overall, while Alpena limbed to 89-99 na climbed to 8:9.

Forward Quincy Mitchell acored 20 points for OCC, and forward Derrick White had 17, plus 11 rebounds. Guard Jason Hanson had 10 points and Troy Daniels 10 assists.
OCC led through much of the first half but trailed 41:38 at halfilms. It regained the lead late in the second half, but Alpena hit its free throws. Forward Nate Turor led all scorers with 28 points for Alpena, which had auccess through much of the game in breaking OCC's press.

Spring soccer sign-up

Spring soccer sign-up

pring registration is under way for the Parmington Soccer Club.
All new and returning soccer players, how and girls, ages 8 to adult, are invited to register for recreation teams.
Returning fall players are encouraged to register by Wednesday, Jan. 31, to secure their team position. New teams are forming, and new players and conches are saked to Join.
Registration runs through Thursday, Feb. 15.
After that date, players may be accepted with an additional charge where team vacancies permit.
Registration forms are available at the Farmington Hills Parks and Racreation Office, libraries, Activities Center and YMCA.
For information call the soccer line at 474-8568.

European team tours

ontinental Teams is taking applications for its summer European team tours for volley-ball, secore and field backey.
Field hockey and volleyball teams will visit ngland, Holland, Balgum, Germany and Serit-riand to play local dub teams and participate in surraments, including the London International ournament.
The second

Tournament.

The secret tour will go to England and Holland to play local rinh terms and to participate in the Haarlem Cup, one of Holland's top international tournaments.

tournaments.

The teams are open to high school-age individuals, inty-ding the 1996 graduating class, with average to show-average abilities. Players will be placed on teams according to age and/or ability. For an application, brochure, trip cost and furnissing information, call (709) 848-2070, or write to Continental Teams, 804 B. Ridgeland, Oak Park, III., 60304.

Condinental Teams is a non-profit organization formed 12 years ago to promote sports in conjunction with education and travel.

To submit items for the Oberroe Aperts Rome, write in on O'Moere, 2005 Behovioruh Beed, Lietmin, MJ 48180; eend fee to (313) 691-7379. Per infermation cell (313) 953-

Harrison earns 1st league victory

Harrison High got back to winning on the bas-kethall court Friday with a 10-point victory over host Livonia Franklin. The Hawks visit crosstown rival Farmington for an intra-city contest

Farmington Hills Harrison earned its first Western Lakes Activities As-sociation victory in boys baskethall Friday. Sophomore Matt Derochor and jun-

Friday.
Sophomore Matt Derocher and junior Justin Snow scored nine points aplece for the Hawks, who defeated host Livenia Franklia 44-34.
Sophomore Brian Lawis added eight points for Harrison, which plays at rival Farmington on Tuesday.
The Hawks improved their records to 3-6 overall and 1-2 in the lesgue.
Senior Matt Bauman netted 16 points and nine rebounde for the Patriots, 0-3 and 1-7.
Kevin Blgs added eight for Frank-lin, which trailed 20-12 at halftime and 3-14 fart frive quarters. Harrison made 13 of 20 free throws, Frank-lin or Matter and Sales after three quarters. Harrison made 13 of 20 free throws, Frank-lin four of size.

"We didn't come out with a tot of intensity to begin with, when you only score 18 points in three quarters," Franklin coach Larry Jackson said, "I'm not sure we were ready to compete tonight."

BORGESS SS, RICE 48: One way to succeed to paid the price Friday for Westland John Glenn's thumping by Wayne Memorial earlier in the west.

Soe HOOPS, See In the West

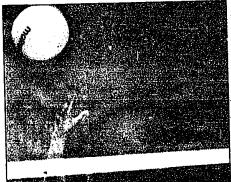

making five of six three-point attempts in the second haif.

Sanibr forward Richard Turk size finished in the Second haif.

Sanibr forward Richard Turk size finished in the Shannecks trailed 41-34 at haiftime but outcoved the firsh in the third quarter 31-20 to take a 65-61 lead.

"We pressed, played harder in the second haif and get the built Gaide, which spends the street pass and played harder fixed the street pass and played harder the street pass and played and the street pass and playe

See HOOPS. 90

Net totals: Mercy's Beth Janes tips the ball back at Birming-ham Marian in Catholic League play Thursday, The Mariins lost in three games.

Finally, Hawks defeat Spartans

It was sweet, but coach Ron Shortt knew it would be. It was long

St. was sween, the Country was song snough in coming:
Farmington Hills Harrison remains a team to be beaten in the Western Lakes Activities Association after aweeping Livonia Stevenson (15-5, 15-11, 15-6) in girls voltophall Wednesday.
"It was the first time that Harrison has beaten Stevenson in voltophall, Evyri emphasized the observation of the country pleased Short." And Two beat time at Farmington—and we'd never beaten Stevenson.

Erika Greens is the way with 13 tills in 27 attempts while Sarah Rauch had eight kills in 23 attempts.

Reuch had eight kills in 33 attempts.
Greens also served four aces as the Hawks improved to 3-0 in the WLAA and 10-5-6 oversil.
"That was a big win for us," Shortt said. "We had a usal good night. In the third game, we were down 5-1 and came back to win.
"You get a little nervous, it being the third game; you won the first two and you're worried shout a tet-down."

down."
There was no letdown.
Abby Ault had 27 assists, 32 sets and nine digs while Sara Kloosterman recented 16 digs.

VOLLEYBALL

Catholic League jone Thursday, falling in three games at Blumingham Marian. 1 The Mustangs sandwiched 15-7 and 15-11 victories around a 15-12 win by the Mar-lina.

in ferry is 1-1 in the Central Division, 4-1 in the langue and 13-5 overall.

The Mariline falled to produce on the service in the interference of the service in the first gene, putting only 50 parcell into play.

Enteron player well in defeat, recording sight tills with only one error out of 18 stacks and having 12 attack receptions.

tions.
Sheyanne Mooter had 12 sesists among 37 sets and vis defensive digs. Kathy August ted the Martins with three blocks, and she also had seven seals to in 17 sets.
Mercy plays Tuesday at Ladywood.

Mercy plays Tuesday at Ledywood.

B 90000 HAS LETDOWN
North Farmington was on the very of victory Windowskey, holding a two-games tocome lead but all contents.
The victory of the contents of the contents fence.

North had 19 stiack errors and 13 serving errors with only two aces, Kenjarwich solded.

Resity Opfermany had sight hills out of 29 stants, Lee Helms noven out of 29 stants, Lee Helms noven out of 23 stants, Lee Helms Rose Research and Leura Noison Rvs out of 23 troupts and Lenza Notions five out at 22 hits. Tricks Traczyk had those sole bircks for hills. Heather Cornwell was 21-of-22 serving with one ace.

The Raidors are 1.2 in the Lakes Divi-sion and 16-8-1 overall.

E TROLING USE LARLY
Christic Delian served seven aces Thursday, propelling Liv min Clarescerille to a 18-5, 18-3 victory at Willow Stee.
The Trejene, who did not go through the full retailed in either ground, are new 3-3

Falcons find WLAA champs still have it

ister this week when they host improved Walled Leke Central, ranked No. 11 in the state, in anoth-

"Of the five seniors, only three are seasoned wrestlers; the rest are sophomores and juniors," Berg said.

"At the end of last season, the coaches said, "Who do we have coming bach?" We said, Those tide have verstled some of the best competition (in practice) we've seen in a long time."

Whereas the Spartnan were solid in the middle and upper weights last year with Scott Goldman. Thus 'night succeed, the second year on the warding of the second year on the weights one. Thus termed, that strength is in the low. The teams were tide 4-4 after two bouts Thurshow. The teams were tide 4-4 after two bouts Thurshow, Farmington's Matt Michalaki scored a takelows in the least five seconds to earn a major deal cone at 12.

But the Spartnan won six of the next seven bouts take a commanding 34-7 ised.
"Now we're completely switched," Berg said. Lake Control, ranked No. 11 in the state, in anothset Lakes contest.

"Of the five sentors, only three are seasoned wrestlers; the rest are sophomores and juniors," Berg said.

"At the end of last season, the coaches said,
"Who do we have coming back?" We said, Those kids have wrestled some of the best competition (in practica) we've seen in a long time.

Whereas the Spartans were solid in the middle and upper weights last year with Scott Goldman, Chris Mullett, Ben Lewis, Matt Flaber, Craig Martin and Jim Townsend, their strength is in the lowrewights now.

The teams were tied 4-4 after two bouts Thursday, Farmington's Matt Michalaki scored a takedown in the last five seconds to earn a major decision at 112.

"We used to say "The little guys have to hold us close until we get to the 140s and middle weights." Now we have to get all the points we can right sway and hope we don't give up too many later on. Not that (the heavier wrestlers) don't try herd, but they're inexperienced."