accused of raping and threatening to kill, was a close friend of Melissa Bovair. Police believe the deaths were motivated by jealousy of the girl with whom Cayce's former girl friend was spending a lot of time since their breakup in May.

Cayce was a friend and co-worker with Davis at a Hills restaurant and bar. Both men face two counts of premeditated murder, two counts of felony murder with arson resulting in death, two counts of felony murder (burglary of jewelry, a TV and VCR) and one count of arson. The six murder counts would bring mandatory life sentences. Arson is punishable by up to 20 years in prison.

Hills woman critical after accident

A Farmington Hills woman remained in a coma Tuesday after suffering serious head injuries in a car accident Friday.

Mary Margaret Retelle, 75, was injured when she lost control of the 1994 Toyota as she was driving west in snowy, icy conditions on Nine Mile east of Gill at 12:15 p.m. The car spun around and struck a tree, said Officer Gary Brandemihl.

The impact was on the driver's door area. Retelle suffered head injuries and was transported to Botsford General Hospital. She was then air lifted to the Trauma/Burn Center at the University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor where she was in critical condition Tuesday.
