FARMINGTON HILLS SPORTS SCENE

Donahue's 1,000th win

Coaching keeps one young, then Glen Donahue is at least on his second time through the teen-age years.
Donahue has now coached 1,000 games — the equivalent of coaching a game every night for ngarly 2.74 years — at the collegiate and high school levels.
The most recent came Saturday as the host Schooleraft College men's baskethall team surprised second-place St. Clair, 94-79.
Donahue also compiled a 113-81 high school record at Highland Park, St. Gabriel, Salesian and Blahen Borgosa, plus a 401-295 mark at Highland Park Junior College, along with a 114-63 record at Orchard Lake St. Mary's College. That makes the

Madonna card show

adonna University will stage a sports card show from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 17, at the Activities Building, located off the corner of Schoolcraft and Levan roads. Over 75 tables will be on display. There is no charge for admission. For more information, call (313) 432-5609.

Crusader volleyball

egistration for Cruander Junior AAU vol-leyhall, directed by Madonna University women's volleyhall coach Jerry Abraham, will be Sunday, March 17 and 24, at the Activities will be Sunday, March 17 and 24, at the Activities Building.

The practice schedule is set for the following aggroups: 12s and 14s, noon to 2 p.m.; 16s, 2:30-4:30 p.m.; 18s, 5-7 p.m.
The program begins in March (through the end of June). Practice days are Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. Tournaments will be on Saturdays. Program fees include $175 (12s), $200 (14s) and $275 (16s and 16s). There is an additional $275 expense for elite team players who will compete in the state AAU and nationals (Des Moines, Lowe). For more information, call Brian McClain at (313) 525-0547 or (313) 432-5612.

Hawks stay alive by beating Salem

Farmington Hills Harrison kept alive its playoff hopes by defeating Plymouth Salem 70-67 in a Western Lakes Activities Association boys baskethall game Tuesday.

By Richard L. Shook Staff Writes

Young teams are often good at one thing, if nothing else — sging basket-ball coaches in a hurry.
Farmington Hills Harrison shaded plymouth Salem 70-67 Tuesday to keep its Western Lakes Activities Association playoff possibilities on the strong side of the quicksand.
Both teams are 7-9 overall but the Hawks are 5-5 in the WLAA to a 4-6 record for the Rocks.
"History has it that five (wins) gets you in (the playoffs)," Harrison coach Mike Teachman said. "Siz (does) for sure."

sure."
Harrison hosts Northville Friday night while Salem entertains North Farmington. The playoffs begin next

Farmington. The playoffs begin next week.

The Hawks and the Rocks are both laden with underclassmen. Harrison that we reniors, Salem four.

At times they look full of possibilities. And at other times, they look impossible.

Harrison came out with sophomore Matt Deroclur bombling in two threes as his team took leads at 8-0 and 10-2. The Hawks hit eight treys in the first half.

"When we came out and our shots were dropping in the first half, we were like a kid with a new toy." Teachman sald, "who showed the old toy—defense—off in the corner."

"We did not play very well and there's no excuse for it," Salem coach Boh Brodle sald. "Our intensity level was just pathetic. Our decision making on the floor lan't very good.

"I told them they've got to quit playing like young players. They're not young players any more. They have a season under their belt."

Junior Andres Lopes acored 28 points for Salem, freshman Mike Korduba had 18 and sophomore Andy Power II.

Derocher scored 23 for Harrison, including five triples, while junior Kevin Bambenel got 12.

"We did not have any ansawer for Lopes," Teschman said. "He's what I call a '60s basketball player, he'll work and work and work. The '90s player wants to wear the right pants, have the right number on his back."

"Some other players have got to step up, and nobody did." Brodie said. "We've been riding his (Lopez) shoulders all year."

For a team with no height, Salem Iddn't box Harrison out well. The Hawks had the edge on the boards, particularly at crucial points in the game.

The score was tied at 21 after one game.

The score was tied at 21 after one period. Harrison held a 42-40 half-time lend and was up 56-53 after three.

"The game was always in doubt," Teachman said. "That period of not laying defense in the first half bothered me. They had 21 points in the saint.

paint.

"With a young team — when you don't know how you're going to come out shooting — you've got to rely on

See HAWKS, 4C

Sharp turn: Kareem Smartt makes his move around a Salem defender in Harrison's timely 70-67 victory Tuesday

Event, arena get high marks

The only thing lacking was a first-place finish by the local first-place finish by the local staters.

Otherwise, the Tri-State Precision Skating Competition was a big succeas Saturday at the new Farmington Hills fee Areas.

Between 1,500 paid admissions, 1,200 skaters, coaches and workers, it was stending room only during the day-long event, according to Carl Modett of the Plymouth Skating Club.

Sirty-two teams from several Midwest states and Canada competed in 12 divisions besed on age and skill levyl.

petad in 12 divisions operation and shill level.
"Farmington truly benefited by all the ice we bought, and the exposure for the arma is tough to place a dollar value on," said Modetz, who easisted the Farmington Hills club in organizing the competition. "I can't say enough about the Parmington people. It worked out real well.

"We got rave reviews about the facility, the eatherics of it, the lay out. The skaters loved the ice. The workers, the people who rave the Earth of Ear

SKATING liminary team was a real pleasant surprise, but we were really hoping the juvenile team would get a Procision skating: Pizzaz of the North Suburban Figure Skating Club performs its routine during the Masters competition Saturday at the Farmington Hills Ice Arena.

All 1995/96 Jackets, Shells, Suits, Bibs, Sweaters, Vests, Warm-Ups, Fleece Tops & Bottoms for Men, Women & Kids All 50% Off Retail.

Burton Clothing & The North Foos are 30% Off Retail. No West.

