Clarenceville wins Metro title

Young, strong and coming on! That's latest motto coming from the Livonia Clarenceville gitls volleyhall team, which de-spite being acceled third, won the Metro Conference tuurnament Saturday at Rioomfield Hills Camba Aliberta

Saturday at Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook. Coach Alisha Love's squad, with no seniors and only three juniors, improved to 28.8-2 over-sil with a 15-11, 15-10 victory in the finals over regular season champion Macomb Lutheran North.

"It took us awhile to get to this Love said. "We're beginning to gel," Love said. "We're serving well and we're playing defense. And our attack is getting better." Clarenceville missed only three

For Parrish, who played club hockey for two years after gradu-ating from Farmington High be-fore gaining a scholarship to Ferris, getting back for the re-maining games and playoffs was important. "The roaches chose me as cap-tain," he said. "I had a lot of con-choree and I'm willing to take a

As a defenseman in the Bull-dogs' scheme, Parrish didn't ring up big numbers but did stop a lot of opportunities at the blue line and in the corners.

but the doctors gave Parrish the go ahead for the Mismi game, and the Buildogs seem to have caught their second wind.

This year, unlike previous years when only Michigan and the Lakers dominated the league, five teams look like contenders.

No other college was interested in his talents, and even Ferris State took its time about recruit-ing Parrish. But this summer

The waiting sections, the CC goal crease untouched. Billott, parked at the corner of he crease, didn't see the puck at-ter it went through a mass of CC players and right in front of goalle Rick Marnon. "If the guy had his stick on the ice, it might go in, but I can't complain," Rice coach Mike Brown said. "We were down 8-1 and could have folded the tents. We have a bit of pride in this (dreasing) room." CC survived a scary moment at 523 of the second period when both defenseman Scott Curitin and Marnon went down for sever-al minutes after taking bits on the same play.
