

Classic Interiors is perfect for hand-crafted furniture

Beautiful hand-crafted wood end tables, elegant wood armoires, breathtaking traditional bedroom sets. You'll you're looking for.

Classic Interiors has the largest selection of traditional furniture in metropolitan Detroit, said Kevin Konat, store owner. The store has been in business since 1937. It's been at its current location in Livonia since 1977.

"Some of the trends we've been seeing in traditional furniture is that the lighter woods are more popular," Konat said. "We're also seeing that a transition: all look is very popular something in between traditional and contemporary. Jewel tones like burgundy and navy are also becoming very popular."

Classic Interiors was the original Pennsylvania House Gallery dealer in the state of Michigan. Other popular lines the store carries include Harden, Thomasville and Lexington.

Classic Interiors is open Monday, Thursday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m., Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.

So treat yourself to a new look for your home this spring with a special purchase from Classic Interiors.

Laurel Park Place: Shopping Made Easy

Shopping is made easy at Laurel Park Place with 70 upscale stores such as Jacobson's and Michigan's only Parisian Department Store for customers to enjoy. Add the excellent restaurants like D. Dennison's, Max & Erma's and Genghis Khan and services such as those offered by the attached Marriott Hotel, it's no wonder shoppers from all over the metropolitan Detroit area love shopping there.

Laurel Park Place has a strong dedication to the community as well. It demonstrates this in many ways. One is through the improvements and activities it's scheduling for 1996. Another way is with its new scholarship program. This year it will begin its program of giving away $2,500 in scholarship money to graduating high school seniors from surrounding communities in order to help further their education. An awards ceremony will be in the Center Court area of the shopping center in March.

The concert series, Laurel Park Place Concert Cafe, continues this year. It strives to offer the finest in local entertainment, free to shoppers. Each concert includes informal modeling and complimentary samples from The Coffee Beanery. It also hosts periodic gift idea shows.

Even the Easter Bunny is planning a visit to Laurel Park Place. The Easter Bunny's Garden will be located next to Fannie May Candies in order to give families photo opportunities and a place to read stories together. This special garden will be open from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday and from noon to 5 p.m. on Sundays, March 23 through April 6.

Laurel Park Place is conveniently located east of the I-275 Expressway at West Six Mile and Newburgh roads in Livonia. This beautiful shopping center was one of the proud recipients of the City of Livonia's 1995 Beautification and Improvement Awards.
