costume? If any of those questions generate a yes, join the merry makers at Temple Emanu-El's Purim Carnival from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday, March 10. The temple is at 14460 W. 10 Mile, Oak Park. Besides games and prizes, there will be a drawing. Costumes for adults and children are optional. Tickets, four for $1, are available at the door and may be used for games and refreshments.

ADAT SHALOM
Actor, producer and director Henry Winkler will speak at 11 a.m. Thursday, March 14, at the Women's Division CHOICES event at Adat Shalom Synagogue, Middlebelt and 13 Mile, in Farmington Hills.

The event, sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit, is the largest community outreach program and Allied Jewish Campaign fund-raiser for the Jewish Federation Women's Division. Corporate sponsors include Jacobson's and The Mundre Funds.

Winkler is best known for his role as Fonzi in the television show "Happy Days." With the black leather jacket worn by The Foxes retired and hanging in the Smithsonian since 1980, Winkler's career has concentrated on directing and producing.

A minimum gift on behalf of the 1996 Allied Jewish Campaign is required. There is a $20 person fee for the lunch program. Complimentary baby-sitting will be available for children 2 and older. Advance registration is due before Feb. 15. Call Sandra Jaffe at (810) 642-4260, ext. 184.

FAMILY VALUES
Family Victory Fellowship will sponsor its Third Annual Family conference, "True Family Values," on March 14-17 at 23399 Evergreen Road at 9 Mile Road on the Dus Scotus Campus in Southfield.

The emphasis of this conference is: restoring family relationships, unity within the home, health, nutrition and gaining financial freedom.

The Family Conference will include local and nationally-known speakers and teachers: Dr. Jerry Horner of Tulsa, OK, will speak on family relationships. Rev. Bertil Balrd of Trinidad, will speak on health and nutrition. Financial planner, Joe Hutchinson of Southfield will teach practical financial strategies for success.

There is no charge to attend this conference which is open to the public. For more information, call (810) 354-1990.

BIBLE STUDY
St. John Lutheran Church, 1011 W. University in Rochester, is having a Walk Thru the Bible Old Testament from 12:30 to 6:30 p.m. Sunday, March 17. Cost is $12 adults, $5 teens/kids (at least in sixth grade).

The church will be turned into one gigantic map, hand motions, group review, imagination and catchy phrases to help participants learn vast amounts of Bible knowledge while having fun.

LENT SERIES
Shepherd King Lutheran Church will observe Lent with a series of Wednesday evening services through March 27. The new pastor, the Rev. Dennis Piappa, will lead a worship series entitled "Words That Last Forever" based on the seven last words from the cross. Services begin at 7:15 p.m.

The church is at 5300 W. Maple at the corner of Maple and Middlebelt, West Bloomfield.

UP WITH MUSIC
Keyboardist Dan Broner will be featured at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, March 17, at Northbrook Presbyterian Church, 22055 W. 14 Mile, Beverly Hills. He will demonstrate the newly completed Moller pipe organ and the Yamaha Clavinova. Joining him will be flutist Vicki Walker in a performance of the Suite for Flute and Jazz Piano by Claude Bolling. Broner began his tenure as music ministries director at Northbrook last April; he previously was music director at Central United Methodist Church, Detroit.

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT
Volunteers are needed for Days of Decision, the phenomenon that concludes the 1996 Allied Jewish Campaign, the major fund-raising event of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit. Calls will be made March 24-26 at the Max M. Fisher Building in Bloomfield Hills. The campaign supports a network of agencies providing a lifeline to senior adults, troubled individuals, refugees and people with disabilities, among others. It revitalizes Jewish life with school and camp scholarships, Jewish education programs for teens and young adults, and religious books and holiday foods for Jewish communities overseas. To volunteer or make a pledge, call the Allied Jewish Campaign: (810) 642-4260.

Financing The American Dream

Design honors

Interpretive look: The Michigan and Detroit chapters of the American Institute of Architects have bestowed their 1995 Honor Design Awards to the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church in Troy. Designed by the architectural firm of Constantine George Pappas AIA Architecture/Planning, Troy, the project has been recognized for the highest design award in both the State of Michigan and Metropolitan Detroit Area. The design jurors, consisting of noted architects from Imca and Georgia, praised the project on its "modern interpretation of the traditions of the Greek Orthodox faith."
