"Where the Spirit of God is Directing"

Live One Day At A Time
It seems we go hurrying through life waiting for something, looking for something, expecting something better in the future. It's not that we shouldn't plan ahead — you have to think about that wedding coming up, or your child's graduation in the spring, or your retirement in five years. Future planning is important and necessary, but when we become so obsessed with tomorrow, we miss the blessings that this day may bring. Those good old days in the future are happening right now! By having an optimistic outlook and faith in God's plan, we can make each day a more joyful experience. Strive to live one day at a time, starting today.
So don't be so anxious about tomorrow.
God will take care of your tomorrow, too.
Live one day at a time.
