School board race draws 3 new faces

By ERIKA M. HIRSCHMAN
STAFF WRITER

WALLED LAKE

The final count is in. Deadline for the filing of school board nominating petitions for prospective candidates was Monday at 4 p.m. for the Walled Lake school board race in which voters will decide two four-year terms during the June 10 election.

In the Walled Lake School District, three new nominations appeared last Monday as Novi resident William Drum, White Lake resident Kenneth Braun and Commerce Township resident David Carlisle filed petitions. Incumbents David Flammer and Alp Oender's already filed nominating petitions. In Walled Lake, Flammer took out petitions last week, after being undecided for a while about whether to seek re-election.

According to the district's elections administrator, Robert Crowe, Greg Williamson was also circulating petitions last week. However, his name did not appear among the other three contenders.

Onder is completing a one-year board stint to conclude the unexpired term of Marc Belaky.
