"Our House" Goes To The White House.

"Our House" is going to the nation's capitol to spotlight energy efficiency improvements under way at the White House. This special episode of Detroit Edison's award-winning energy conservation TV show will air on Sunday, April 21, at 7 a.m. on WDIV-TV Channel 4. "Our House" co-hosts, Tom Tynan and Paula Engel, will take you behind the scenes for a look at "The Greening of the White House," a project of the Clinton Administration to improve energy efficiency and cut waste throughout the White House complex. You'll tour the landscaped grounds surrounding the White House and visit some of our most famous and historic rooms, seeing how America's First Family is approaching energy-efficient living and environmental responsibility. The project highlights practical steps that all homeowners can take to benefit the environment, save money and improve the comfort of their surroundings. "Our House" is sponsored by Detroit Edison, Carrier Heating and Cooling dealers, UNIC Radio 100.3 FM, WDIV-TV Channel 4 and Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

GUIDE TO THE MOVIES. A large, multi-column listing of movies and theaters. The header includes 'GUIDE TO THE MOVIES' in large, bold letters. Below the header, there are several columns of text, each representing a different theater or cinema. Each column lists the movie title, the time of the screening, and the ticket prices. The text is dense and organized in a grid-like fashion. Some columns have small icons or symbols next to the movie titles. The overall layout is a comprehensive guide for moviegoers in the Detroit area.
