A Golden Day Or A Silver Day

Whenever it's a nice sunny day, my wife calls it a golden day. When it's overcast, she calls it a silver day. I used to refer to overcast days as dreary, and you know my whole day was dreary. I now try to think of each day as a golden or silver day; it just makes me feel better. I guess it has to do with putting positive thoughts in your mind. Silver does sound better than dreary. We have to be careful of what we profess with our mouths; the Bible tells us that we will be held accountable for every idle word we speak. We all enjoy being around a friendly, positive person; they just make you feel better. So when you're having a silver day, make your own sunshine and spread it around. You'll feel better and you'll have a golden day — and so will those around you.
