scored seven runs in the first three innings off Ryan Weisman, who went the distance for North.

Murray, Derek Fox and Mondoux had RBI singles for the Falcons. Jake Siskosky drove in the other run on a fielder's choice, and Pat Hickey had the only other hit.

Cornwell (2-0) pitched five innings to earn the victory, striking out five and walking two. North had five of seven hits off Cornwell before Murray finished up.

Weisman allowed seven walks and hit one batter; he struck out three. Mike Gleeson had two hits for the Raiders, who made three errors.

FARMINGTON 7, WESTERN 5: On Wednesday, the Falcons scored six runs in the top of the first inning and held on to beat host Walled Lake Western.

Cornwell went 3-for-5 and Mitchell 3-for-4 as Farmington collected 15 total hits.

Fox, Siskosky and Mondoux added two each. Cornwell and Fox also had two RBI apiece, and Mitchell scored two runs.

In the first inning, Latra's triple knocked in the first run. Fox hit a two-run single, and Siskosky, Mondoux and Cornwell followed with RBI singles.

Farmington had six hits and executed the hit-and-run play five times in that inning. The Warriors made two of their three errors.

Charlie Jaeger pitched the first four innings to earn the victory, allowing half of Western's six hits and six walks while striking out four.

Tony Harvey pitched the last three innings and escaped a tight spot in the sixth. The Warriors had men at second and third with one out, but Harvey got a strikeout and an assist on a ground ball for the third out.

Cody Thornton went the distance for Western and didn't walk anybody. He struck out four.

CHURCHILL 13, NORTH 8: The Raiders made three of their four errors in the sixth inning Wednesday, allowing the host Chargers to score four runs and rally to win.

The victory is Churchill's only win in 10 games.

Troza had a double, a home run and two RBI for North. Jeff Sorman had an RBI double; John Lusswey (double) and Robert Roth had a hit and scored a run.

Brian Holzheimer pitched 5 2/3 innings for the Raiders, allowing seven hits, striking out five and walking three.

Mark Felker pitched a complete game for Churchill, and Brett Wells hit a pair of doubles.

HARRISON 13, CHURCHILL 8: Senior Matt Sullivan pitched another solid game for the Hawks, and junior catcher Aaron Lawson continued his torrid hitting Friday.

Sullivan pitched 5 2/3 innings, striking out seven and walking one to raise his record to 4-2.

The Chargers had 10 hits off Sullivan, but he received plenty of support and wasn't in any trouble. Harrison led 11-2 after a five-run fourth inning.

Lawson, who leads the Hawks with a .481 batting average, went 2-for-2 and drove in five runs.

His three-run triple keyed a four-run Harrison second, and he crushed a two-run homer in the fifth.

Adam Smerczki had a big game at the plate for Harrison, going 3-for-4 with one RBI and scoring three runs.

Zack Cornwell also had two hits and scored two runs.

Chris Gleason pitched 1 1/3 innings of relief for Harrison, 3-2 in the Western Division and 8-4 overall.

Jason Fleischer was the loser. Wells was 3-for-4 with two doubles and two RBI for the Chargers, 0-5 and 1-9.

HARRISON 12, CENTRAL 2: On Wednesday, Tom Judd hit a grand slam and had six RBI in the win over visiting Walled Lake Central.

The game ended after five innings because of the mercy rule.

The Hawks had 12 hits, including a two-run single from Judd, the designated hitter.

Mike Fisher continued his solid hitting pace of the last two weeks, getting two more hits and three RBI. His two-out, solo homer in the fifth ended the game.

Fisher follows Lawson with a .400 average. Cornwell added two hits and one RBI.

"That's probably the best we've hit the ball all year," Harrington said.

Matt Derocier pitched a complete game for Harrison, scattering five hits, striking out three and walking three.

LATH NORTH 13, CVILLE 0: The host Trojans were limited to two hits Wednesday, one each by Bryan DeCaire and Kirk Damas. Scott Hatch (1-1) was the losing pitcher.

The loss left Clarenceville at 3-3 in the Metro Conference and 3-4 overall.

"Kim did a nice job; she threw strikes, which is all we asked her to do," Farmington coach Jerry Osborne said.

Heikinen held North to two hits the rest of the way. Kathie Collins tossed a four-hitter for the Raiders, striking out eight and walking four.

North's Kate Devereaux had three hits and two RBI; Amy Finkel and Lynn Livernois had two hits each. Finkel also scored two runs and had one RBI.

Lukasiak had an RBI single for the Falcons, who loaded the bases in the third inning but failed to score.

The Raiders are 2-3 in the division and 8-10 overall.

FARMINGTON 17, WESTERN 1: The Falcons pounded 14 hits and merited visiting Walled Lake Western in two innings Wednesday.

Beth Howald led the hitting attack with three hits, which included a grand slam and a double. She hit six RBI and scored two runs.

Rattal also had three hits, crossed home plate four times and had one RBI.

Anna Clark, Heikinen and Teresa Lindemann chipped in two hits apiece.

Lindemann had three RBI. Clark and Heikinen took each. Clark got both of her RBI with a triple.

Heikinen was the winning pitcher, walking none and striking out three.

CHURCHILL 4, NORTH 0: Senior Alicia December pitched the first perfect game of her career Wednesday for the visiting Chargers, striking out three.

With one out in the North seventh, a Churchill infielder bobbled a ground ball but still made the play. That was the only "scary" point of the game, according to coach Dana Hardwidge.

The wind made it tough for hitters, but (December) pitched well and the team played solid defense behind her,

Hardwidge said. "She also helped herself with six assists.

"Alicia and the catcher (Jenny Clulow) were aware of the perfect game in the later innings, but no one was talking about it."

Jessie Jenkins had two hits and one RBI for the Chargers.

CHURCHILL 13, HARRISON 7: The visiting Chargers broke open a close game with a seven-run fourth inning Friday, increasing a 3-2 lead.

The Hawks answered with the next five runs before Churchill added three more over the last two innings.

December pitched a complete game for the Chargers, as did Ali Ault for the Hawks.

Harrison had a 13-11 edge in hits but made four errors. Ault struck out eight but also walked nine.

Becky Vudler went 3-for-4 and Kistler Kezara 3-for-5 for the Hawks. Kezara also had three stolen bases and Vudler two. Both girls scored two runs.

Harrison's Ali Ault added two hits (doubles) and had three RBI.

Clulow had three hits and scored runs for Churchill, 5-0 in the WLLA and 12-2 overall. The Hawks are 2-5 and 3-5.

CENTRAL 4, HARRISON 0: Senior Lindsey Tapp pitched a one-hitter for the defending WLLA champions Wednesday at Walled Lake Central.

She struck out nine and walked one Kezara went the distance for Harrison and kept us in the game," coach Mike Teachman said. "We didn't say 'You're better than we are; we're not going to play hard.' We completed with that."

"We had four or five real good at-bats. They didn't result in anything, but the girls battled."

Shannon Hartman had two triples and scored two runs for Central, which improved to 6-0 in the league and 13-2 overall.

Holly Foster had Harrison's only hit. "We turned two double plays on them and played hard; we didn't take a step back," Teachman said. "We didn't say 'You're better than we are; we're not going to play hard.' We completed with that."

The wind made it tough for hitters, but (December) pitched well and the team played solid defense behind her," Hardwidge said. "She also helped her-
